City offices are closed for holidays

To commemorate Christmas and to enjoy the New Year, all City of Romulus offices will be closed on Friday, Dec. 23 and also on Monday, Dec. 26, city officials announced today.

No business transactions between the city and residents will be conducted on Dec. 30 and Monday, Jan. 2, 1984 in order to allow city employees and officials to enjoy the New Year holidays.

Mayor visits commissioners

Beverly McAnally paid her first visit as mayor to the City Planning Commission Monday night to wish the Commission good luck during the years and also introduce the new Commission secretary.

Linda Kelley will be replacing Vivian Beanum, who is taking a leave from her duties as secretary to have a child.

Said the Mayor to the Commissioners, "Now I want you to be very nice to his young and pretty girl," which prompted a burst of smiles and laughter from the Commissioners and audience.

Mayor McAnally reminded Commissioners that she spent two years on the Commission and "I, too, am hopeful, that things will turn around for Romulus."

Judging the holiday spirit

Old foundry site

Postmaster General picks new Post Office location

Postmaster General, William F. Bolger, presented the City of Romulus with a long awaited Christmas present — a new post office.

Mayor Beverly McAnally announced the Postmaster General's decision last week at the annual City Chamber of Commerce Industrial party was held at the Airport Holiday Inn.

The new building will be constructed on a site on the southwest corner of Goddard and Hunt Streets in the downtown area. The current structure on that site, which at one time contained a foundry, will be razed so that construction will begin in the spring.

In a recent letter to Romulus Chamber of Commerce President, Leo Kalota, Postmaster General, Bolger, stated, in part,

"I'm happy to say that we have selected site one, the foundry site. I am sure that our customers in Romulus will be pleased with the modern and safe facility that is to be constructed on this site."

The current structure on that site, which at one time contained a foundry, will be razed so that construction will begin.

The new facility has long been an item of concern of not only the city and Chamber of Commerce, but has also been pursued actively by the Romulus Central Business District Association. In the fall of 1983, Congressman William Ford, who is the chairman of the House Postal and Civic Services Commission, informed the city officials that after years of attempts, Romulus will see the new post office become a reality.

The two-acre site, which is coming into the city's possession due to tax reversion, will be sold to a private developer who will then clear the area and construct the new facility, according to Community Development Director, Pat Hogan.

Hogan stated in a letter to Robert J. Grimmett, a Southfield-based real estate specialist for the postal authority, "The developer will be required (by zoning ordinance) to submit to the Romulus Planning Commission his final site plan prior to obtaining a building permit."

"I suggest that this be done in January or February so that he would be ready to proceed when the weather allows," Hogan stated. The developer will be negotiating a lease-back agreement with the Federal Government. This will enable the property to stay on the city's tax rolls, Hogan concluded.

Mayor McAnally commented, "I am pleased to have the new facility. It will be a definite enhancement to the downtown development effort. There is also the additional bonus with the lease-back agreement in that the city will receive a tax base from that property."

"I would also like to congratulate the Romulus Central Business District Association and the Chamber for their perseverance on this project. Without them, the post office would not have become a reality," the mayor said.

When asked about the new facility, Congressman Ford said, "I am very pleased the Postal Service has selected the foundry site. Romulus is receiving a double benefit," Ford continued. "They are eliminating the old foundry and building a new postal facility at the same time."

Ford explained that sites were judged by a complex assessment

Rollback must cease

MERC offers solution to teacher woes

Michigan Employment Relations Commission Arbitrator, Edmund Phillips, today unveiled the conclusion of his arbitration hearing in the dispute between the Romulus Schools and the district's teachers.

The dispute centered around the action taken by the Board of Education over a year ago when trustees unilaterally reduced the teacher pay schedule 22 percent.

The Romulus Education Association, the teachers' union group, immediately filed lawsuits in federal and state courts; appealed to the Tenure Commission, and filed charges with the Michigan Employment Relations Commission arguing the legality of the drastic action taken by the school board.

The board countered by saying that its procedure was not only legal, but was absolutely required because of their extreme financial conditions.

Phillips has been the mediator in the dispute over the past 18 months and MERC requested that the two sides enter into binding expedited arbitration over this last weekend.

In his opinion, Phillips said, "We are in a situation where neither side is going to be entirely happy. In my opinion, there's no question that the Romulus Community Schools is in severe financial condition and it's obvious that their revenues must be increased or they are not going to be functioning as a School District much longer."

"What this will do to us in this and next year's budget will put us in deficit anywhere from $800,000 to a $1 million. At this point, it would seem likely to me that without additional millage the school district will not be able to open this fall."

Dr. William Bedell, School Superintendent

"On the other hand, it's also obvious that the Romulus School teachers have done more than their share to keep the school district from bankruptcy," Phillips stated.

According to Phillips, the highlights of his award are as follows:

- The Romulus Community Schools will immediately reimburse each teacher $1,000 in back pay.
- Effective January 1, 1984, the teacher pay schedule will be returned to the level it was at the time of the rollback.
- All lost wages will be returned to teachers, but the School District has been given the next five (5) years to accomplish that refund. Teachers will have their money returned on December 15th of each of the next five (5) years in equal installments. There will be no interest payments made.
- A letter of understanding will be extended by the teachers that guarantees labor peace in the School District. Teachers will pledge themselves to cooperate, to extracurricular activities, and to generally contribute to the welfare of the School District.
- The expired contract will be immediately extended until August 30, 1985.

In explaining his award, Phillips said, "What this means is that the teachers of Romulus have loaned the district, interest free, almost $7,000 a person to the schools over the last two school years."

"It seems to me that the least the school district could do with that kind of sacrifice is to return the teachers' money within a reasonable amount of time. It is obvious to me that the school district must find a way to persuade their taxpayers to increase the millage rate or all of the parties are headed for serious trouble," Phillips concluded.

Superintendent of Romulus Schools, Dr. William Bedell said that he and the school board are well aware of what the arbitrator's decision will mean for the community and they would work to carry out the decisions.

"However, what this will do to us in this year's and next year's budget is that it will put us in a deficit of anywhere from $800,000 to $1 million."

"Obviously, at this crucial point, it would seem likely to me that without additional millage the school district will not be able to open this fall."

"All of us — every resident, parent, student, teacher and administrator — will have to work together to solve out problems. And, I believe working together we can do this," Dr. Bedell concluded.

Carriers to Collect

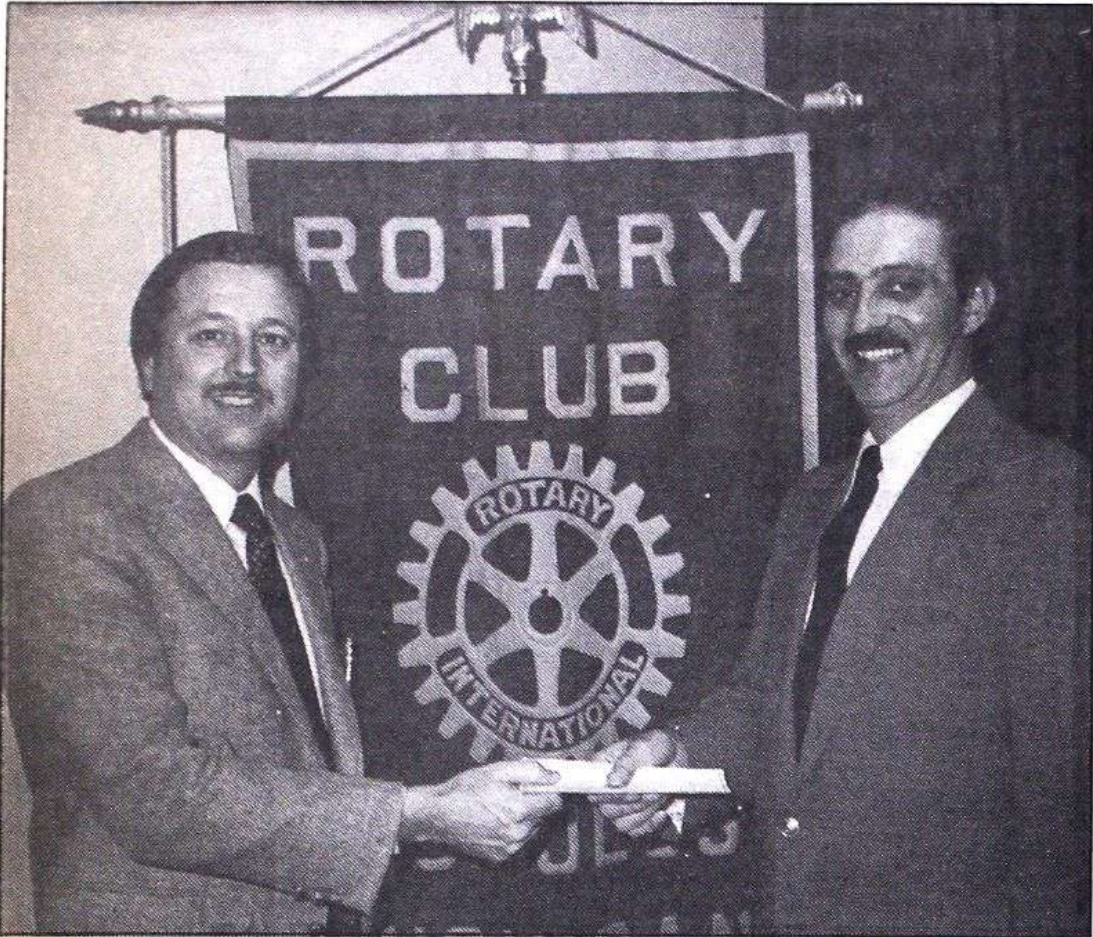

Because of the Christmas holidays your carrier will be making his collection rounds early this month. This will enable your carrier to greet you before Christmas and make it possible for him or her to realize route profits for Christmas shopping.

When you pay your carrier, please make sure he or she gives you a receipt. Do not pay for your paper unless you receive this receipt. By doing so, you will keep unauthorized persons from collecting in your area.

Primary concern

Senator Majority Leader William Faust and Huron Township Clerk Mary Lou Carey were on hand recently when Governor James Blanchard signed Senate Bill 240 into law eliminating Michigan's Presidential Primary. Carey was one of the first of many local officials who urged that the open primary be abandoned because of its high cost and lack of effectiveness in choosing both Democratic and Republican presidential candidates. According to Senator Faust, Michigan will save an estimated $5 million by not holding the presidential primary in 1984.

Over their goal

Thanks to a $300 donation by the Romulus Rotary, the Romulus Goodfellows surpassed their goal of $4,000 this year. The donations will help provide a Christmas for the needy in the city. Pictured above are Clem Campbell (at far left) who is presenting a check to Mike Terpevich, chairman of the Romulus Goodfellows. The Rotarians wished "Everyone a very Merry Christmas". Hopefully many of the indigent in the city will become the recipients of the service club's generosity.

What Grinch stole the Christmas tree?

Van Buren Township officials are indignant at a thief who did a hatchet job on one of the "Christmas" evergreens in Van Vuren Park.

"Someone just helped himself to a Christmas present," said Township Clerk Delphine Dudick on Monday.

Township officials think that greed, not need, motivated the Christmas tree thief. "The tree was chopped down with a hatchet," pointed out Dudick. "That wasn't someone just running it with a saw to get the job done quickly. 'It's more like someone decided to have a good time chopping it down.'"

Parks and Recreation Supervisor Gary Missant discovered the loss on a routine inspection of the park last week. The six foot evergreen stood in the center of the lake side of the park, near Denton Road.

"There's just a stump where a beautiful tree used to stand," Dudick said. "We're very upset. If anyone knows anything about the theft, we hope they'll come forward."

"What a mean thing to do before Christmas," she added.

Persons with any information concerning the tree theft are asked to call the Township Hall at 699-8900.

Police receive $300 donation

A special fund to aid Van Buren Township police injured in the line of duty was given a boost by a $300 donation from the Ford and Mercury Restorers' Club.

"We're very grateful to the generosity of the group," said Van Buren Police Chief Leonard Keller. "This is an important contribution to our police Benevolence Fund."

The Dearborn-based club also donated $500 of canned goods to a holiday food drive sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce.

The organization's activities include sponsorship of a swap meet at the Wayne County Fairgrounds.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By John Brimble

Graduate student at Yale has programmed a computer to devise new recipes utilizing foods on hand, always considering personal preferences, etc. In our day, MOTHER did that.

... Slip a couple of strips of fresh red bell pepper into a sandwich. It's as tasty and moist as roast pepper, with a nice crunchy texture.

... For best results with buttercream, spread a thin layer over cake and refrigerate to set the cake crumbs. Then smooth on finishing frosting.

... Keep heat low if you're adding cheese to a sauce. High temperature will make it tough and stringy.

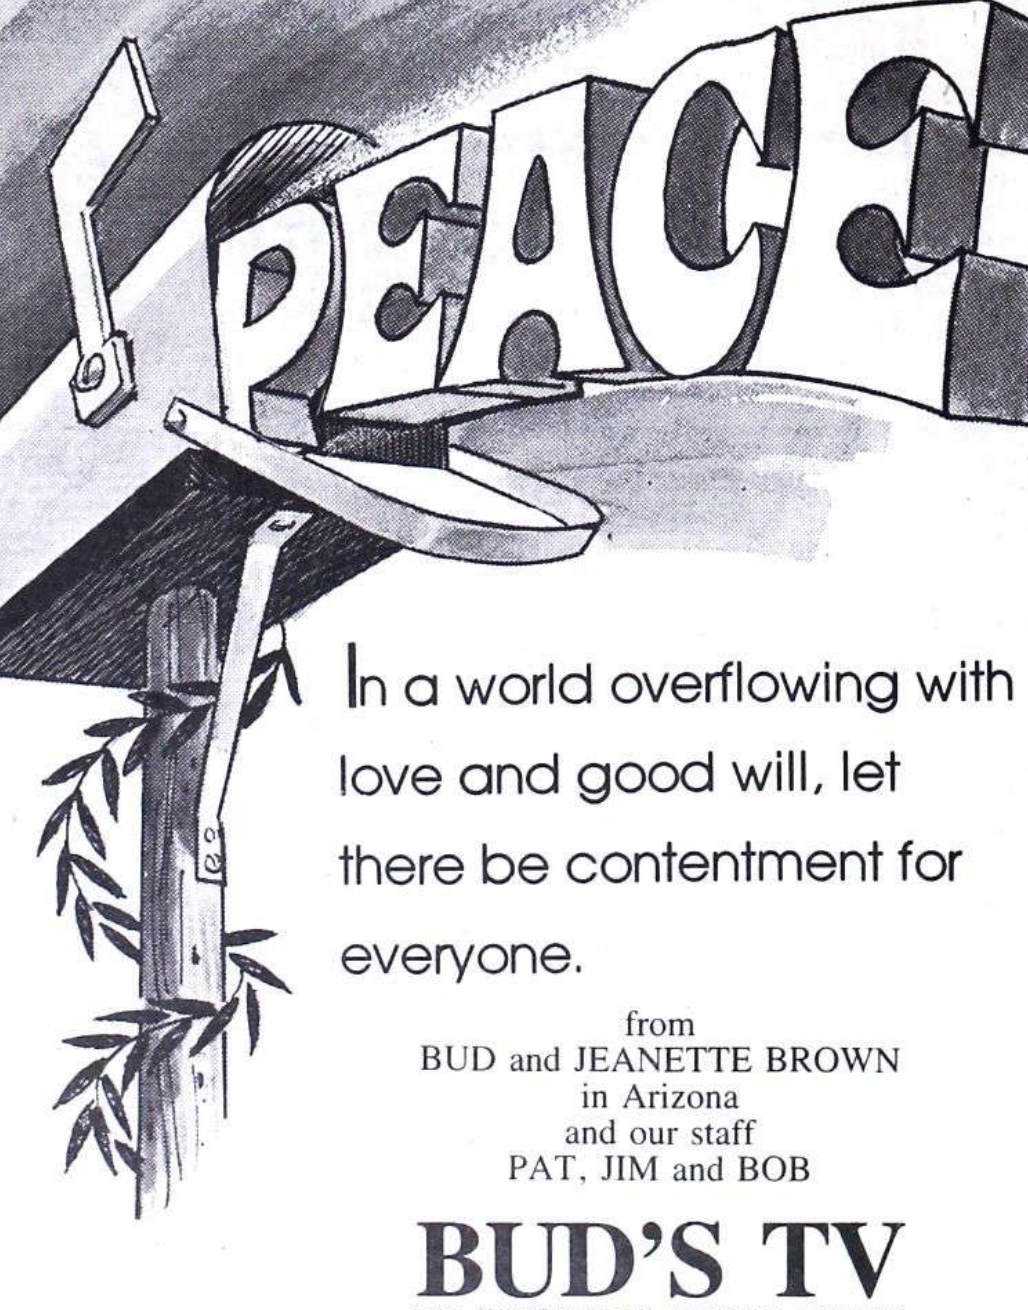

... It's fun to make professional-looking chocolate curls with a potato peeler and room-temperature chocolate squares. Vary pressure to make curls of different thicknesses.

... It's fun to eat out at Captain Nemo's.

Former school houses hub of social programs

When Beverly Elementary School closed its doors at the end of the 1981-82 school year, some area residents feared that the neighborhood landmark would cease to be the vital hub of community activity that it traditionally had been.

Though no longer the center of children's programs, the former school facility now houses the Romulus office of Wayne Metropolitan Community Services as well as several other community service programs.

The goal of the program (Eager Beaver) is to help clients become independent and as self-sufficient as possible and incorporates such features as . . . social awareness, prevocational training and basic education . . .

Gloria Bradley, director of the center, is pleased with the steady growth of programs over the last 18 months.

"Since September, a soup kitchen, a work experience program for adults, an energy conservation and assistance program for area residents, an adult basic education class sponsored by Romulus Community Schools, and the Family and Neighborhood Services — Eager Beaver Day Activity Center for developmentally-impaired adults have begun programs at this location," Bradley said.

The soup kitchen, which is operated by Wayne Metro Community Services Advisory Council under the supervision of Nina Hulett, Council Chairperson, serves free hot meals to over 100 income-eligible people every Monday, Wednesday and Friday noon. In addition, other diners may take advantage of the hearty offerings by making a contribution to the soup kitchen.

The work experience program is funded through the Job Partnership and Training Act (JPTA) and places income — eligible persons of 18 years of age and older at private nonprofit job sites. The goal of the program is to secure long-term unsubsidized employment for participants. Fifty-six job slots are available in the out-county area.

Since October, the energy assistance program has conducted workshops for area residents to help them make their homes more energy-efficient as well as helping qualified applicants meet utility bills.

Weatherproofing materials will be made available at the workshops. Beginning January 17, the energy assistance program will take applications from people who need help with their utility bills. Applicants will be required to prove their eligibility to qualify for benefits.

Adult basic education is designed to help people with low reading and math skills improve in those areas. The class is small, and students work at their own rate in a relaxed, informal setting. Class meets Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10 a.m. to noon and is taught by James Nelms, a long-time Romulus and Wayne-Westland instructor. New students are welcome to enroll at any time, and additional information is available by calling Romulus Adult Education at 941-0610.

The newest program to be implemented is the Family and Neighborhood Services — Eager Beaver Day Activity Center. The program serves approximately 50 developmentally disabled adults, according to the director, Geneva Clark.

The goal of the program is to help clients become as independent and self-sufficient as possible and incorporates such features as teaching of various life skills, prevocational training, group and individual counseling, social awareness, and basic education classes in math and language skills.

Formerly located at old Harrison Elementary School, the Eager Beaver Center relocated as of December 1. The Center telephone number is 326-6300.

In addition to those programs, the Wayne Metro Community services facility serves as a monthly cheese distribution center for the American Progressive Association as well as a center for Romulus City Recreation programs. The building is also available for a nominal rental fee for group meetings and even banquets and receptions.

Though the name has been changed from Beverly Elementary School to Wayne Metropolitan Community Services, the facility on Beverly Road just east of Wayne Road is still vibrant part of our community and strives to help meet the needs of area residents.

Further information about the center and its programs can be obtained by calling Gloria Bradley at 728-7510.

Tis the season to name winners

New medical center planned for Romulus downtown area

The Romulus Planning Commission Monday night rezoned a parcel of land from single family residential to office building, giving planners of a downtown medical center the go-ahead with the proposed construction.

Requesting the rezoning is Dr. Masroor Ali, who has a medical facility in neighboring Belleville. Appearing on behalf of Dr. Ali before the commissioners Monday night was Marilyn Vaught who told commissioners that the facility would service senior citizens in the highrise and provide a vital need for "everyone in the community."

The proposed medical center would be located on the corner of Sterling and Bibbins Streets.

The proposed project does need City Council approval.

"The location is ideal for a facility such as we have in mind," Vaught told the commissioners that for the past decade he has attempted to develop the approximately 50 acre parcel for residential homes but has been unsuccessful.

Most of the commissioners had concerns over the microwaves and pointed out that they would need more study on their potential health hazards.

Commissioner Phil Renke pointed out that the land was one of the prime residential development areas left in the city where air traffic was at a minimum.

"I'm not ready to give up (that area) for residential development," Renke said, "and I move that we deny this request." He received support from Michael Prybula.

Commissioner Barry Baumann said that the city has a Master Plan, "and that plan designates the area for residential. If we are going to change it and rezone everytime, then why do we need one (Master Plan)."

Post Office location is picked

"Selection of the foundry site is a credit to the hard work of city officials, the Romulus Downtown Development Authority, community leaders and senior citizens. I am already working on legislation to dedicate the new facility in the name of the late Carl Morris who worked so hard for this new facility," Ford said.

"Selection of the site is a credit to the hard work of the city officials, the Romulus Downtown Development Authority, community leaders and senior citizens . . ."

Before his death earlier this year, Carl Morris was active in the community and was involved in many community organizations, serving on such boards as the Romulus Community School Board, People's Community Hospital Authority, City of Romulus Economic Development Corp. and the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

The foundry site was selected over three other city locations; the west side of Wayne Road across from city hall, the intersection of Wick and Wahrman Roads and the intersection of Grant and Wahrman Roads. The 3,000 sq. foot single-story facility will also have an adjacent 24 car parking lot. Formal ground breaking will take place in spring of 1984.

Huron school board trustee receives county recognition

Four Wayne County school board members have been honored for their long service to the schools of their own communities. Certificates recognizing their contribution were presented to them on behalf of the Wayne County Association of School Boards by Karen Wilkinson, president of the Michigan Association of School Boards. The honorees were: Robert D. Frazee, 13 years and Clifford LaMora, 12 years, both on the Lincoln Park school board; Joan R. Hanpeter, 12 years on the Grosse Pointe school board and James A. Pershing, 12 years on the Huron school board.

Mrs. Hanpeter is also a member of the Board of Education of Wayne County Intermediate School District as well as president of the Grosse Pointe board of education.

Pershing honored

James Pershing, a member of the Huron Board of Education for 12 years, was recently honored by the Wayne County Association of School Boards for his service to the young people of his community. A certificate of service was presented by Mrs. Karen Wilkinson, president of the Michigan Association of School Boards.

Girlstown

Fund-raiser to help young ladies

Would you like to do something nice this holiday season to help Girlstown?

Something that is easy to do, won't cost you even one thin dime extra, and will help a young lady have a Merry Christmas and maybe a more meaningful life?

Frito-Lay Corporation has agreed to pay Girlstown a nickel for every 8 ounce or larger empty Frito-Lay Brand product bag they can gather for redemption between now and January 3, 1984. (Girlstown is a non-profit 'safe home' for teenage girls owned and operated by the Michigan State Federation of Women's Club. It is located on Belleville Lake in Van Buren Township.)

The GFWC Belleville Junior Study Club, a member of the Michigan Federation, is spearheading the bag collection drive for the local area.

Collection boxes have been placed at the Van Buren Township Hall, 46425 Tyler Road, Belleville, and the Belleville-Van Buren Area Chamber of Commerce offices, Main Street, Belleville.

Christmas and New Year celebrations often include Frito-Lay snack products, and the empty bags can be put to an especially good use this year. If you have any questions regarding Girlstown or the MSFWC, call Nancy Sawyer, president of the Belleville Junior Study Club, at 607-0764.

Christmas of 1983

There is hope

The eternal Christmas message is one of "hope" and understanding.

That message remains alive today as we prepare to celebrate and commemorate Christmas — 1983.

Although there are signs that life is becoming better for most of us than it was a year ago, the social, economical and political — nationally and internationally — scenes have remained volatile.

The recent murder of American Marines in Lebanon — Marines who were sent on a peace mission — the shooting down of an unarmed Korean passenger plane by the Soviets, and the unrest in the Caribbean and South American countries, climaxed by the United States take over of Grenade, are unquestionable examples that all is not well on earth today and that "Peace on Earth, Goodwill towards Men" remains a dream just as it was nearly 2000 years ago.

The international unrest is frightening, moreover, because many believe that it inevitably will lead to "The Day After", a nuclear war which would destroy the world as we know it today.

Ponderously historic, 1983 also saw a Catholic Pope visit and pray in a Lutheran Church shattering a schism that existed for hundreds of years.

There is much to be concerned about during this, the Christmas before the ominous Orwellian year, 1984. Personal freedoms and liberties are attacked via the computer — the never-ending onslaught against the democracies by the Soviets continue. And, who for sure can say which side is winning?

But our future is in our hands.

Old traditions and institutions have not crumbled because our enemies know we are strong. We are willing to fight and die for them.

Americans are depicted by Soviets as a selfish lot who think only of themselves.

If only the Soviets could spend just one Christmas with us. They would learn differently.

We wish them and all of you a "Merry Christmas".

From Publisher's Notes

Something to think about

Monday morning I had the opportunity to attend my first, and probably my last meeting of the Economic Development Corporation of Wayne County.

The meeting was held in the prestigious Parklane Tower East in Dearborn. A quorum was not yet present several minutes after the appointed hour and so Jack Faus of Contract Procurement Services, Inc. was called upon out of sequence to the agenda in order to fill in. Jack was politely asked to sit down as soon as the quorum arrived.

So much for the formalities — and now to the point.

I was in attendance as a result of my being asked, and my accepting, a special appointment by the Wayne City Council to serve as one of two special board members for the Wayne Ford Plant development. The Wayne Acquisition and Construction project will cost the company a reported $4.3 million. Ford's Wayne Assembly project is a part of a reported $15 million program that includes five different Ford Motor projects; Wayne Truck and Assembly Plant, Dearborn Assembly Plant; Dearborn Frame Plant; Sheldon Road Plant, Plymouth Township; and Parts Redistribution Center in Brownstown Township.

In the presentation Monday morning, Wayne was listed by the Ford officials second, in a listing of the projects and dollars amounts to be spent. Each project had to be voted on separately by the EDC, which required a roll call of the board for approval.

I waited for my opportunity to vote approval for the Wayne project — second on the list — right? No — third? No — dead last. Then after what I read as a spontaneous vote and second for each of the other projects, each mentioned by community name — the chairperson asked, "Will anyone make a motion for the other project?" "The other?"

Perhaps I am too sensitive about this community of Wayne — this community that I love so much — this community that I got up and drove to Garden City to a West Suburban Council of Chambers Meeting to represent at 8 a.m., only to leave early to rush to Dearborn on a freezing cold morning so that for only a fleeting moment I could have the privilege of responding to the question of support or rejection in the vote tally. When they said, "Willett?" and I said, "Yes."

I then left as we were invited to do politely.

Driving back to my office in Wayne I pondered — perhaps — we in the City of Wayne and no doubt the other communities of Western Wayne that I love as well and work to serve — perhaps we have done an even worse job of letting the world know who, what, and where we are, than we already knew that we had. That's — something to think about friend and citizens.

The Ford project was approved, and I'm glad. Congratulations Ford Motor Company.

The recall movement

After reading what Managing Editor Tom Mooradian had to say about the Recall Movement, don't you think it would be fair to get the other side of the story? I am submitting Gov. James Blanchard's recent transcript column on the "Recall Movement and Taxes" for consideration in your "Editorial Feedback" column. I feel publishing both sides of the issues is obligatory in remaining objective.

FRANK MORRIS, ROMULUS

This past week's news has been clouded by stories and reports about the recall of two very fine state senators, Phil Mastin and David Serotkin. And while I'm pleased that the people in mid-Michigan, western Michigan, southern Michigan and northern Michigan were not part of recall activities, because they know it's not fair, I think it's wise to recap just what happened with these two recalls in the Detroit suburbs.

It is true that those suburban areas have been very volatile in terms of social and economic issues. But the fact is, people all over this state have suffered from high unemployment, skyrocketing utility bills, and tax burdens — whether they be property or income. And so the people in Sterling Heights or Pontiac are not unlike lot different from those everywhere else.

What happened regarding recall and taxes? Well, I think the frustration with politicians probably had more to do with the recall than perhaps the tax. But I think it's true the facts of Michigan's tax, Michigan's income tax, have never really been faced head-on in recent days, during these recalls.

Why? Well, I think a lot of people in public life thought that the public understood Michigan was bankrupt, and, therefore, they didn't have to explain the temporarily raised taxes. Secondly, we in government didn't do a good enough job presenting the facts, and that we must do. Third, a lot of misinformation was spread by recall leaders that I think misled, seriously misled, many honest, well-meaning voters. For example, there were four myths that were continuously presented to the voters which I think led to their distrust and anger over the two state senators.

What are those four myths?

Well, first is that somehow Michigan's income tax is 38 per cent. That is false and everyone who has studied the tax knows it. Michigan's personal income tax is 6.35%. However, even some of our major newspapers keep printing the figure 38% to describe an increase but it is imbedded in the minds of voters that the tax itself is 38%.

A lot of people think the tax is permanent. The fact is that's wrong. The tax is temporary. Indeed, you will know that on January first when your paycheck increases. That's the day when the temporary tax increase begins to come down.

A third myth is that Michigan has the highest income tax in the nation. That's simply not true. Twenty-two states have higher income tax brackets than Michigan, including neighboring Minnesota, where it is 18 per cent. North Carolina, which many feel has one of the best business climates, has higher income taxes than Michigan.

The final myth is the most tragic, however.

The final myth is that the tax wasn't necessary. Well, the facts are to the contrary.

Every financial expert, every economist, everyone who studied Michigan government knew Michigan was indeed bankrupt last January. Things were so bad Michigan had to go to Japanese banks to get a loan. Things were so bad that if I had not delayed payments to cities and school districts and colleges, we would have had payless paydays on February 28th. Things were so bad support for education had dwindled to such a degree that our schools and colleges were suffering, and that put pressure on property owners, as well. Things were, indeed, that bad.

But the fact is we cut spending, we froze government employment and began to reduce it by 2000 people. We put Michigan on sound financial footing by adhering to generally accepted accounting principles and we raised taxes, temporarily. That has meant that the 1.7 billion dollar deficit Michigan had last year, that has accumulated over the years, could begin to be reduced. That means that we've improved our credit rating and gone from the bottom to the top in short term credit rating. That means we're no longer dependent on Japanese banks. That means we can now pay our bills. That means that we can comply with our constitution, which requires a balanced budget. That means our plan is working and now the tax can come down. That means that colleges and universities, which would have closed, stayed open. Our troopers are still on the freeways, mental health staffing continues intact, funds to local governments continue to flow, and roads and bridges can now be rebuilt and repaired rather than left to crumble. That means we have the money to clean up toxic wastes and we can help our veterans and senior citizens. That means that Michigan is willing to pay its bills and invest in the future and balance its budget with proper accounting principles. We are becoming the model, financially, for the country. Wall Street and Main Street, financial analysts and economists all agree Michigan had to pay its bills and they had come due.

Therefore, it is grossly unfair that any legislator, of either party, who inherited this mess, and in the case of Senators Mastin and Serotkin who were brand new legislators, would be punished for doing their duty.

We need courage in politics. We need forthrightness. We need to face our debts and pay them. We cannot elect people to office if we punish them for complying with the constitution and practicing sound fiscal and financial integrity. We need courage in Washington and we need it in Lansing. And, I hope all fair-minded people in mid-Michigan and out-state Michigan, northern Michigan and western Michigan will continue to support those types of people in office. Thank you.

Tom Mooradian
Managing Editor

It is like a story right out of an O'Henry novel.

Two persons, so deeply attached and in love, suddenly are separated by death.

And Fate had a cruel hand in this story.

Here is the story as well as we can piece it together.

State Representative Richard Sullivan, a New Boston Huron resident who served as Huron Township supervisor, and finance director for the City of Romulus, was visiting one of his daughters in Lansing last Tuesday night.

Sullivan suddenly complained of chest pains. The daughter didn't hesitate and rushed her father to Ingham Medical Center in Lansing. Richard was placed in the cardiac care unit where he is in "guarded condition" today.

Later in the week, the daughter had to tell her father of the tragedy.

It seems the day after Sullivan's heart attack, Mrs. Sullivan, also suffered an attack. Hers would be massive and it would claim her life.

The tragedy occurred on Wednesday, Dec. 14 as Mrs. Sullivan was preparing to travel to Lansing to visit her husband at the hospital.

Wednesday, Dec. 14 was Richard Sullivan's birthday.

"I was with Mr. Sullivan yesterday," says Jo Anne Hall, Secretary to Representative Richard Sullivan. "The color is returning to his face and he should be removed from the Cardiac Care Unit pretty soon."

Jo Anne said "that there has been an outpour of sympathy and words of kindness, and the family appreciates it. It really is too much to comprehend, isn't it."

Sullivan had been an accountant at Ford Motor Company for more than 25 years before his retirement. He was later hired to help put the City of Romulus' financial books in order and decided to run for public office. He was elected as Huron's supervisor, and in 1981 made a successful run for the state representative's position, realizing a life-long dream.

Sullivan is a "workaholic" who his colleagues say "never rests". He is battling the proliferation of land fills in his district.

"He is always there when you need him and will listen to you no matter what," a friend said. "The Sullivans are really beautiful people."

Contributions in the memory of Mrs. Sullivan may be made to the American Heart Association or any non-profit emergency medical unit. Jo Anne Hall says that the state representative is "still not allowed telephone calls or visitors, but cards may be mailed to the hospital."

Services for Mrs. Sullivan were conducted on Monday at the St. Stephens Church in New Boston.

It is a strange story...one we would have preferred not writing.

Dual school tax collection is criticized

EDITOR — Oh no, not again. The last time the Wayne-Westland School District dual school tax collection cost me $500 because of an escrow shortage with Manufacturer's National Bank of Detroit.

The bank mortgage department politely explained that I must comply with their terms and schedule of payment.

I am not in favor of the dual school tax collection because of same. It may be good for the schools but it was disastrous to numerous homeowners' budgets/mortgage costs.

The school board should consider voluntary or selective tax collections with people or mortgage companies that would cooperate without penalizing the homeowner/taxpayer. Computers could easily do the same.

Ex-teacher's view on Romulus

EDITOR — After reading the various exchanges between members of the Romulus Education Association and Romulus Community members in the newspapers, I felt compelled to respond to the Romulus resident with a kid in school, (Romulus Roman, November 30).

During my years as a Romulus educator, I witnessed, with sadness, a continued lack of community support for the educational program. Every year that I can remember, there was turmoil in the form of labor strife, threats of program cuts, millage failures, and questionable fiscal policies.

Hence, my decision to leave. That was seven years ago! So let's get one thing straight Romulus Resident, the so-called teachers' stunts during this past year you made reference to, had no more bearing on the millage failure than the man in the moon.

Romulus Resident is saying that it is time for Romulus citizens to voice their opinions. It seems to me they always have. I left there because the message was clear...the people don't care! Education ranks somewhere below snowmobiles, cigarettes, and Friday nights at the local tavern.

Board members' faces have changed since my tenure there, but the attitudes remain the same. The 22% pay cut imposed on Romulus teachers did not surprise me in the least. It was obvious to me this sort of thing could happen when I began to notice while I was working there, that teachers are regarded as second class citizens.

I get the idea that Romulus Resident and other authors of similar letters I've read would like to see teachers sweep all this under the rug. It's not nice for them to wear arm bands, to wear T-shirt messages, or to peacefully picket.

And of course that billboard was "disgraceful". So is Romulus Resident implying that something positive would happen if they (the teachers) did nothing? I know better, I've been there.

And one last thing, if anyone else thinks that planning and executing any kind of holiday party for elementary school involves no work, I suggest you try implementing one for 30 children.

I must tell you Romulus Resident that despite giving up seniority, many friends and some wonderful relationships with some fine young students, I have had no second thoughts about leaving your district.

St. Al's says 'thank you'

EDITOR — On December 13, the students of Romulus St. Aloysius school did their Christmas shopping. There were hand made items and items purchased from a Fun House.

They not only did their shopping, they also had a chance to tell Santa about the additions to their Christmas list.

Cookies and orange drink was available for the hungry shoppers. We also had gift wrapping available.

We would like to thank everyone who helped making crafts or worked at the store. A special "Thank You" to Sister Shirley Ann, (our principal) and to Mayor Beverly McNally for taking time out of her busy schedule, to visit with the parents and children at the store.

We would also like to thank the following businesses for their donations: Lents Funeral Home, Ornamental Design, Romulus Drugs, Crova Sales, Windiate Hardware, Romulus House Restaurant, Uptown Hair Fashions, Family Drugs, Carriage Cleaners, B & L Automotive, Coca-Cola Bottling Company, Merem's Market, Daly Drive-In (Romulus), Mach's Flowers, Anchor Block Co., Super "J" Foods, Cake Lady, Bilmar's Supermarket, Family Hair Shop, Regal's Meat Market, Romulus Hardware, Ford Motor Co., Johnson Fuel Co., Kroger Co., Monarch Cleaners, Ryznar Trucking, Detroit Tiger Baseball Club, Creative Hair Fashions, McDonalds of Wayne Rd., Romulus, Romulus Recreation, Alert Glass, Dave's Barber Shop, Little Caesar's, Meijer's Thrifty Acres, Northside Hardware, Perry Drugs, Detroit Lions, Cuino Pinto's.

Once again, we would like to say "Thank You" and may everyone of you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Let's all show our support to these businesses, the same way they supported us.

GLORIA HOLTSCHLAG,

I would like to suggest to Mr. Ensign that he read the local papers a little more closely and perhaps his opinion of the Mayor and the tax situation would be different.

A brief look at the local papers' headlines and excerpts over the past year would show Mr. Ensign that he is thanking the wrong person(s) for the "modest" tax reduction he received.

On April 7, 1983 the Westland Eagle headlines read "Mayor Wants Full Tax Levy to put Westland in Black."

The story goes on to indicate that the Mayor wanted to raise the property tax millage to the full levy allowed by Law under our City Charter, but...but the people demonstrated against the Mayor's proposed Tax increase.

The week of April 28 our local papers carried headlines "Residents to City Hall: No Tax Hike" and ran pictures showing concerned residents picketing City Hall telling the Mayor to stop Tax increases and calling him — Pickpocket Pickering", and...and to prove our system of democracy works — local elected officials responded. No Not The Mayor but the City Council. Headlines the week of June 9, 1983 tell the story — "Council Rejects Full 8-Mill Levy" and "Going Down - City '84 Budget gives Homeowners a tax break."

Two points are made by this brief look back over the past year. One, Mr. Ensign should be "Thanking" the City Council not the Mayor for his tax reduction; and two, that the Mayor "Has fallen" into the Socialist trap of taxing the worker to death and spend, spend, spend."

I do agree with Mr. Ensign on two points. One, that if he had voted for the election winners opponents he would be faced with higher Taxes — higher taxes proposed by their Most Ardent Supporter, the Mayor. Two, that at the time of his election the Mayor was an "unknown quantity." In my opinion, he has done nothing for the city and its residents to change that and unfortunately he remains "an unknown quantity."

A Christmas miracle

She was nine years old...a little girl, who for seven years had never walked. Never walked since that fateful day, when as a toddler, she had fallen down the stairs. Lying limp and lifeless in the hall, she never stirred as her mother and father scooped her up and rushed her to the hospital, where for the next several hours they beseeched God to save their baby. And He did. She lived, but she never walked again.

Some doctors said she could walk if she believed she could. They said she was suffering from a trauma of fear. Other doctors said she would never walk. There was physiological damage that would never mend.

But the little girl knew nothing of this. She sat in her wheelchair and watched the days fly past while her sisters and brothers danced and skipped around her.

On Christmas Eve of the year that she was nine years, she sat in her wheelchair, pulled up beside the roaring, leaping fire that filled the room with warmth, and she watched her mother and her father and her sisters and her brothers decorate the tree. As each child drew a decoration from the great box, he would run to the little girl in the wheelchair, and say, "Look, look, is this the one you want me to put on the tree?"

And the little girl would take the decoration into her tiny hands, turning it carefully so that the firelight would catch it, making it shine, and then she would hand it back and nod solemnly, "That is the one," she would say.

As the Christmas songs swirled through the air, and the dancing flames of the fire licked out hungrily towards the room, the little girl became sad. Great tears formed in her eyes and rolled down her cheek. Her mother saw the tears and rushed over to her.

"What is it, little one? Why are you sad?"

The little girl leaned her head against her mother's soft body and cried, "I want to walk. Mama, I want to walk and dance around the tree and never, ever have to sit and sit and sit..."

Her grandmother, upon hearing the whispered words and seeing the tears on the little girl's face, went to her and knelt down beside the wheelchair.

"Honey," she said, as she placed her soft white hand on the hand of the little girl as it lay in her lap. "Honey, Christmas is the time for miracles. A long, long time ago the greatest miracle of all occurred when the Christ Child was born to this earth. And ever since that time, for those who believe in that Christ Child, miracles can happen. Do you believe that, honey?"

"Oh, Grandma, I DO believe it...but see, it isn't happening..." And the tears continued to roll.

"Believe, baby, just believe," And her grandmother drew the small body toward her, and cradled the head on her bosom, her hands gently brushing the gleaming hair of the little girl.

The shining star was placed carefully at the top of the tree, and then the lights were turned off, so that the room lay rosy and glowing in the light from the fire, and the twinkling lights of the tree. The star at the top seemed to have a light of its very own as it twinkled steadily in a special kind of glory.

The little girl's mother went to the piano and softly played "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," "Silent Night" and all of the other beautiful carols that fill the heart of Christmas with ecstasy and joy.

Joyce Hagelthorn

And the little girl fastened her eyes on the shining star, and as the carols wrapped her heart in joy, there suddenly appeared above the star the face of the Christ. And as she watched, two arms came from somewhere near that face, and reached out to her. And in her heart she heard the words, "Fear not, for I am with Thee. Walk...walk...to ME."

The firelight glowed, the star shone, the music soared, and over it all was the face of the Christ, and his arms reached out to her. And she pushed the robe away from her lap, and stretching one foot out, she tested it, never taking her eyes from the vision before her. Then she stretched out the other leg, and then she stood. HIS hand touched her hands and leaning on those hands she walked towards the shining star, and the shining face of the Christ.

The miracle of Christmas!

Merry Christmas to all of you and may your lives be forever filled with miracles!

The Christmas doll

There was a little girl, once, who believed in Santa until she was just past 10 years old.

No one else she knew, by the time she was 10, still believed in Santa. They all told her, over and over again, that there was no Santa. They teased her. They taunted her. They got mad at her and wouldn't speak to her...but she still believed.

She didn't give up on beliefs easily. She tried hard, for instance, to hang on to her belief that her dolls came alive at night, after she fell asleep.

It wasn't so far-fetched as everyone thought. Marcella, the owner of Raggedy Ann and Andy (the girl owned every one of the "Raggedy" books), was every bit of 10 years old, and she still suspected that her dolls came alive at night. (Of course, Marcella had every right to suspect it—her dolls did come alive at night.)

There was a certain comfort in believing in nocturnal dancing dolls and a jolly old elf of a Santa Claus. Nothing could hurt you, she thought, as long as dolls danced and Santas came down chimneys.

There came a time though, finally, when it didn't seem to matter anymore whether she slept through her dolls coming alive. She still loved her "Raggedy" books, but they were just wonderful fun now. They were no longer real.

Giving up Santa came harder. It came during the Christmas she had asked for the bride doll. No—she begged for the bride doll.

She had understood during the years before—the war years—that everything the country could spare was going into the war effort. She understood, too, that things were so bad even Santa was affected. She did her part by only asking for little things. Trinkets, really.

But this year was different. The war was over and everyone was saying that times were good again.

So she begged for a bride doll just like Marcella's. A beautiful doll with a satin gown and beaded slippers and with black silky ringlets covered by the finest chiffon veil.

She awoke Christmas morning at the first light of dawn, and raced into the living room. As she hurried through the murky semidarkness, she saw the white dress. She saw the white veil. It was her bride doll!

She held it to her and carried it to the window. The first light of day showed her a doll...but this was not the doll she wanted! This doll had stringy yarn hair and...freckles! This doll had a gown of cotton dotted-swiss. On her feet, there were no beaded slippers. On her feet there were no shoes at all.

She threw the doll back under the tree and raced past her mother, crying bitter tears.

When she reached her own room, she pulled all of her old dolls out of the little cradle where they nestled and threw them across the room. The Raggedy's, the Teddy, the baby doll with one eye permanently closed.

"I think you should know," her mother said quietly from the doorway, "that your father sold his spare tire to buy you that doll.

Mona Grigg

And I cut up some perfectly good kitchen curtains to make her that gown.

"Now, you don't have to play with her—you don't even have to like her...after today. But if you're as good at pretending as I think you are, your father will never have to know."

She was gone as quickly and as quietly as she had come.

"Your father sold his spare tire..."

There is a doll...a beautiful doll, with copper-colored yarn hair and freckles. She wears a yellowed dotted-swiss bridal gown just long enough to cover her toes. Her veil is long gone. Her name is "Penny."

Her owner is a woman now, with children and with grandchildren...And, so far, no one has ever been able to convince her that Christmas does not bring a special magic of its own.

Isn't abortion legalized murder?

EDITOR — Write your representatives and tell him you want them to override the governor's veto on the issue of abortion.

Tell them that we've killed enough babies. Abortion is nothing less than legalized murder.

God didn't say rich or poor, He said, "Thou shalt not kill."

This nation was founded as a Christian nation. We must get back to that way of thinking. Between abortion and surrogate parenting, we are trying to play God.

If a man murders a person, he goes to jail. Why doesn't a doctor who performs an abortion go to jail?

He kills people.

Let's stop this crime!

More on taxes in Westland

EDITOR — This letter is in response to the letter published recently penned by Westland resident, Richard Ensign.

The recall rationale

EDITOR — Often you hear a person of authority rationalize a severe punishment by saying "I may have been overly harsh in your case, but I had to make an example of you."

In the case of senators Mr. Philip Maskin and Mr. Dave Serotkin, the people (ultimately the highest authority), made an example of them.

The ex-senators in question may have thought they had received a "mandate" when elected, but this should not be confused with holding office by "Divine Right."

The action taken by the electors in the last two weeks should serve notice; that officials serve at our pleasure and not their own!

Christmas is for everyone

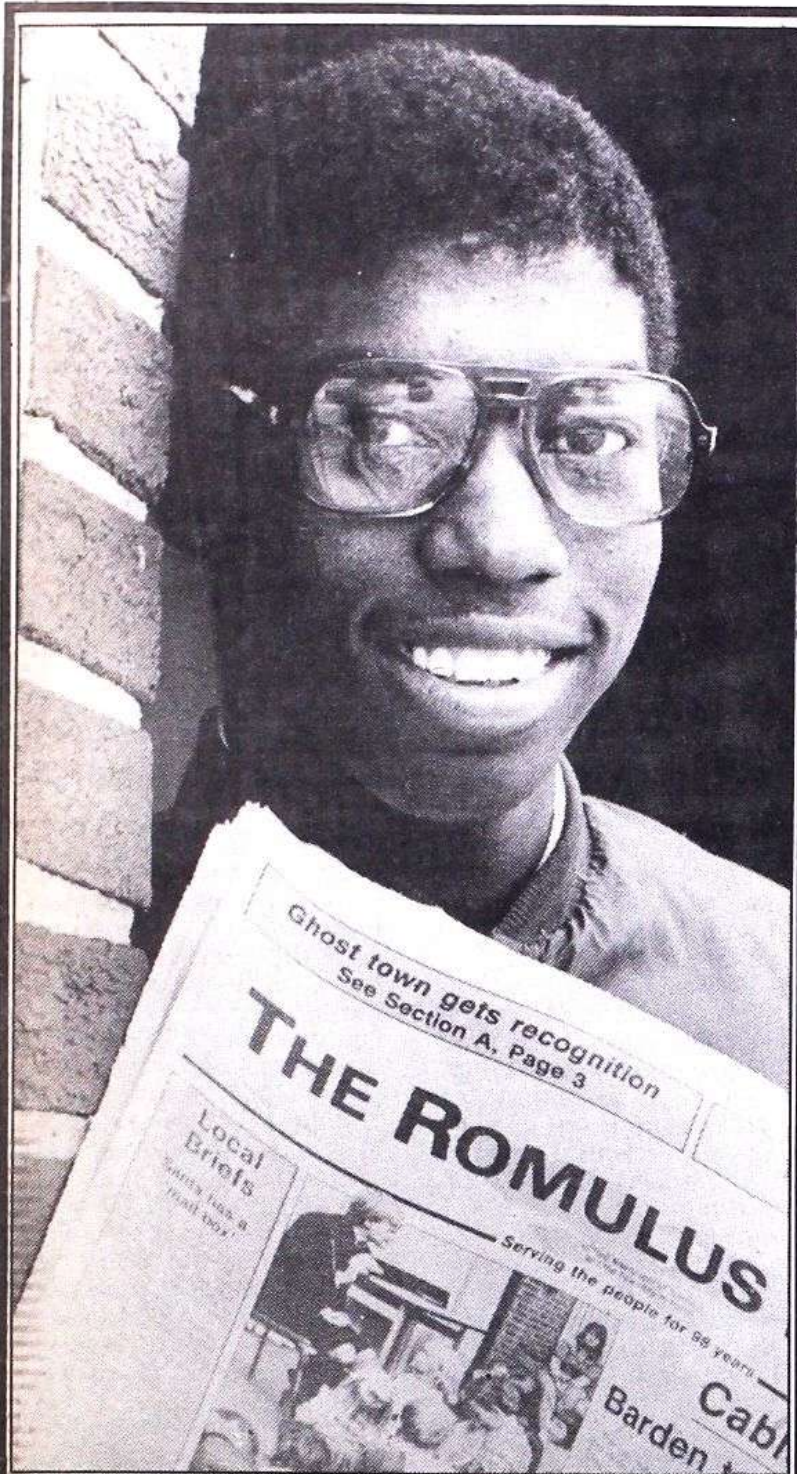

*The greater part of all the world
Is hurting from disease,
Tens of millions starving
While some sit back at ease.*

*It isn't toys and Christmas trees
Most children have to share,
There isn't any food at all,
Just sickness and despair.*

*Christmas is for everyone
But just a few can reap;
For all those who are happy,
There are ten times those who weep.*

*And when we get our greeting cards,
And gifts from those who care,
Remember deep within our hearts,
Those crying are still there.*

Carrier of the Week

Everyone wants Antoine's job

There are people standing in line for Antoine Bosley's job ... and they are getting a little impatient for him to give it up.

Antoine, 16, is the Carrier of the Week, selected by the Circulation Department at Associated Newspapers. He has had his newspaper route for more than five years and delivers the Romulus Roman to more than 40 of his neighbors.

He is a tenth grade student at Romulus Senior High School and shyly admits that his favorite subject is English. He intends to pursue a college degree when he graduates but is still deciding on a career.

His hobbies include football and track and he played on the high school team this year and will be trying out for the track team.

Aspiring to take over Antoine's job are a brother and a sister, both of whom think his route would be ideal for them. Antoine, however, confides that he has no intention of relinquishing his route until he finds another job. But when he does, his advice to his successor will be simple, "Always be polite ... and deliver the papers on time."

Antoine is the son of Donald and Martha Bosley, 10-year Romulus residents.

"I really enjoy the route — I'm going to keep it as long as I can — my brother is helping me now and he wants to take over. And my sister says she wants to have it, too ... but they'll have to wait," he added with a smile.

Van Buren discontinues bingo games
Sessions disrupt township business, trustees say

Bingo lovers may have played their last game at the Van Buren Township Hall.

The township suspended the Wednesday morning Bingo games on December 7 because Bingo "just wasn't paying its own way," according to Township Supervisor George Craven. "The money went into our Recreation Department, but it just never amounted to much," he added.

"There was also a lot of turmoil and comotion while the games were going on," the supervisor added. "No one could use the hall when the games were going on, and staff had to spend a lot of time setting up and clearing away."

"The amount of money we made just wasn't worth the hassle," Craven summed up.

Between 80 and 100 bingo devotees attended the weekly games which began at 10 a.m. and ended at 1:30 or 2 p.m.

Recreation staff acknowledges that they've heard "quite a few" howls of protest since the bingo boards officially hit the dust.

Wednesday morning Bingo has been a Recreation Department ritual for at least five years, staff says.

Carne accepts new title

The promotion of Michael Carne to the position of production/ad services manager of The Associated Newspapers was announced this week by David J. Willett, president and publisher.

Carne, 31, has served as an accountant representative and advertising layout artist since joining the newspapers' staff in July of this year.

He previously worked as art director of Metro Cable Magazine in Canton and held the posts of advertising sales director and production manager at The Community Crier in Plymouth.

"Mike Carne represents the kind of career-minded talent that makes this business exciting for those who have the opportunity to work with such an individual," said Willett. "He offers our newspapers the kind of input that we need at this time."

"He will provide the direction on a day-to-day basis that will get our newspapers assembled in a quality manner on time," Willett continued, "and provide our customers, through our sales representatives, with the product they want and need. It is with great pride that I welcome him to the ranks of our management team."

A Westland resident, Carne earned a bachelor of arts degree with a psychology major from Eastern Michigan University in 1980. He also has attended various advertising and graphic design workshops and seminars.

Carne has produced promotional and advertising material for Monthly Detroit Magazine, Four Plus Three Advertising and the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce.

The Associated Newspapers publishes six weekly newspapers — The Belleville Enterprise, Romulus Roman, Wayne Eagle, Canton Eagle and Inkster Ledger Star.

Navy Seaman Apprentice Mark A. Morin, a 1981 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Command, Orlando, Fla.

During the eight-week training cycle, trainees studied general military subjects designed to prepare them for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

Included in their studies were seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid.

Marine Lance Cpl. Kenneth N. Krantz, son of Neal W. and Diane M. Krantz of Van Born Road in Wayne, was recently awarded the U.S. Marine Corps Good Conduct Medal.

The award, which signifies honest and faithful service over a three-year period, was established by the Secretary of the Navy in July 1896 to recognize good behavior and conduct in the Marine Corps.

Marine Cpl. Timothy M. Johnston, son of Kathleen J. Fulner of Hunt, in Wayne, recently participated in exercise "Valiant Usher 84-2."

He is a member of Battalion Landing Teams 3/3, 31st Marine Amphibious Unit, Marine Corps Air Station Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii.

Approximately 1,800 Marines and Sailors of the 31st

Marine Amphibious Unit were involved in the Unilateral amphibious exercise that was conducted November 4-8, 1983, in the Lancelin Army Training Area of Western Australia.

Navy Engineman Fireman Mark J. Koharchi, son of Eileen M. Chervenak of N. Beery in Westland, recently departed on deployment to the Western Pacific Ocean.

He is a crewmember aboard the destroyer tender USS Prairie, homeported in Long Beach, Calif.

During the deployment, the ship will participate in various training exercises with other U.S. units and those of allied nations.

Port visits are scheduled in several Far Eastern countries.

The Prairie is 531 feet long and carries a crew of 1,131.

Pvt. James M. Koss, son of Olga and Walter Koss of Thornwood Drive in Canton, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations.

Holiday spirit

The spirit of caring and the spirit of sharing was in evidence last week at the Senior Friendship Center in Westland, as staff members of the Department on Aging and participants in its many clubs and programs welcomed residents and other seniors to the facility for Christmas Week. Santa designate Frank Moore heard Christmas wishes from youngsters and seniors alike, including Larry Laing, 85. There also was caroling, led by Beth Johnson, adult education teacher at the piano and budding songstresses Clementine Ross, Mae Pedley, Becky Marr and Myrtle Strzalkowski. An annual event at the center, it attracted a standing-room only crowd the entire five days.

Thank you is proper

Christmas presents have been opened, and the sweater from Aunt Minnie is perfect. The home-baked breads sent over from the next-door neighbor were the hit of Christmas breakfast and the twins adore the sled grandpa picked out.

The holiday season is one in which the expression, "It's more blessed to give than to receive," is joyfully demonstrated. It's also appropriate that the sender's generosity be remembered in a thank-you note.

"It's important that the thank-you be conveyed as soon as possible following the giver's kindness," says Larry Salvaggio, product manager for stationery at American Greetings. "But too often sending the note is delayed because the receiver just doesn't know what to write."

Salvaggio offers the following hints that make sending a thank-you note easier:

- Write the note within a few days of the receipt of the gift, while details are still fresh in your mind.

- Describe the moment when the gift was received. Tell the person who sent the gift how you felt when you opened it.

- Explain how the gift will be used — and be specific. Let Aunt Minnie know the first occasion when the sweater will be worn, for example.

- Jot a note about what the gift meant to you, or mention how it reflects the giver's personality. Try something like, "Only you would have known that we'd be up all night Christmas Eve wrapping presents, and I'd be too tired to cook a fancy breakfast. But thanks to the breads you sent, the morning was perfect for everyone — including me!"

- Personalize the thank-you note with a photograph of the gift as it is opened or is being used by the receiver.

Santa says 'thanks' . . .

Gene Reaves expresses gratitude to donors

Santa is coming to town Saturday night, but his designated representative in Western Wayne County, Gene "Santa" Reaves of Westland, has all but finished up his work with underprivileged children.

Reaves provides gifts of hats, sweaters and gift certificates to foster grandparents for youngsters at the Plymouth Training Center, the Rose P. Kennedy Respite Center, the Dorsey Center and several other parties for underprivileged children.

While his work may be done this year, Reaves has not forgotten those who make it all possible. Big "thank you's" go to Associated Newspapers Inc., which helped raise funds for his Santa's Christmas Fund through its "I Love a Parade" Contest.

Santa's helpers also include Westland Councilman Thomas Artley, Lee and Ann Bartlett of Westland, the Canton Jaycees and their president, Doug Ritter, the Canton Rotary Club and its president, Lee Halsted, the Canton Lions Club and its president, Larry Wegrzyn, the Canton Chamber of Commerce and Canton Township Clerk John Flodin.

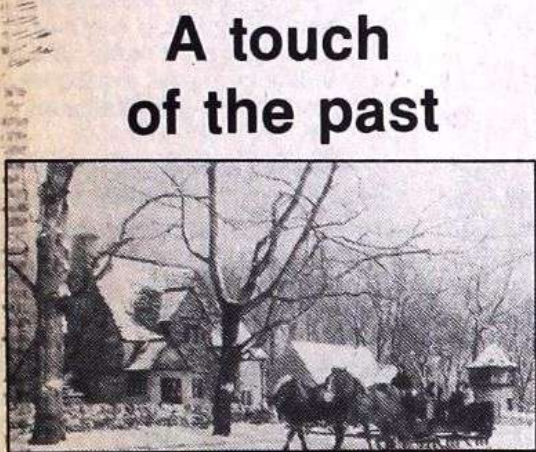

Also Jack and Kathy Lapan of Ypsilanti, Eddie and Jean Waak of Canton, the Willow Creek Senior Club of Westland, Bruce and Elsie Young and the Teezer Band, all of Canton Township, the Young at Heart Senior Club of Westland, the Burns Sing Co., Jim and Nora Hardin of Westland and Bill and Lou Powell of Westland, who accompany Reaves as his helpers at the different functions.

Also gaining "thank you's" are the Community Medical Clinic of Plymouth, Joe and Wilma Carpenter of Farmington, Larry and Bev Chopp of Livonia, the Easy Rider Bike Shop of Canton Township, Congressman William D. Ford, Roy and Evelyn Groetsky of Westland, the Gadabouts Senior Club of Westland and its president, Stanley Zavitoski, and the Wayne-Ford Civic League in Westland and its president, Marion Greenfield.

Also Judy Harris of Wayne, Don Holzer of Canton, Harold and Trudy Hodgdon of Westland, Joe and Rita Kulesza and the Regal Lanes in Sterling Heights, Bill Knapps Restaurant of Plymouth and its manager, Barbara Beanchi, Lodge No. 835, Loyal Order of the Moose, of Wayne, the Rainbow Missionary Club and Mary J. Coan of Detroit and John and Edith Riopelle of Westland.

Also Tom and Judy Regan of Westland, Royce Smith of Belleville, Harlan and Dorothy Smith, Jack A. Tompkins of Grosse Pointe Farms, Charleen Lamphear of the Westland Center Merchants Association, Willow Creek Apartments in Westland, Erwin and Frances Nothnagel of Wayne, Charles Olah of Westland and the Plymouth Jaycees and their president, Nick Smith.

Also Pixieland and its owner, Ben Korn of Farmington, Westland Mayor Charles Pickering, Juanita Ritondale of Wayne, State Sen. William Faust of Westland, Rober C. Law of Plymouth, the Lucky Pinochle Club and its president, Theodore Dunlap of Wayne, Monna Lou and the Golden Coin Lounge in Westland, Memorial Funeral Home of Westland and owner James Vermaulan Sr., Frank McMurray of Canton, Phil and Carol Meloche of Canton, Dale Merrifield, Manager of Manufacturers Bank in Westland, and the Ladies Auxiliary of Harris-Kehrer VFW Post 3323.

A touch of the past

Change is what Henry Ford Museum is all about.

Change is the theme underlying the remarkable inventions, contraptions and appliances assembled here for public inspection. Even the decorative objects reflect changing American tastes.

The museum's creator had change in mind when he began collecting evidence of America's past. Henry Ford wasn't attempting to isolate and forever preserve fragments of history. Rather, his collections suggest to every observer how far this nation has developed, how much we have changed.

With such a legacy, it shouldn't be surprising that return visitors will see a striking change in the appearance of Henry Ford Museum's central corridor, the Concourse.

Walking from the main entrance of the museum toward the eight-acre exhibit hall, visitors will have a fresh view of the Concourse all the way to the back of the museum. Curved walls flanking the foot of the Concourse focus attention into the redesigned exhibit area, leading the eye to the mammoth gas-steam engine that crowns the end of the corridor.

Situated within one of the flanking walls is a new, 112-seat theater where the film, "A Tradition of Change," is shown regularly each day. Produced by The Edison Institute, the new film offers for the first time an introduction to the themes and purposes of Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. Veteran actor Pat Hingle is the program host, relating the story of America's transformation from a rural, agricultural nation to an urban, industrial one.

Rather than a history lesson, "A Tradition of Change" explains the influences and sweeping changes in everyday life caused by the Industrial Revolution that began in the early 19th century. Featured are objects from the museum collection, buildings and furnishings of Greenfield Village, as well as historical illustrations from the museum's vast archival holdings. With these examples, the film vividly recounts this country's rapid development through invention, technology and mass production.

Located beyond the theater in the Concourse is a new multimedia presentation on The Edison Institute's creator, Henry Ford, emphasizing his role as a social engineer with a unique and determined vision of the future.

Four, separate slide-sound projection units narrate in sequence Henry Ford's involvement in power generation and available technology, decentralized cities and industries, rural living, and mechanized farming, practical education, leadership and even reincarnation.

Leading the visitor from one slide-narrative section to another is a graphics display that chronicles the important developments and achievements in Henry Ford's public and personal life. The timeline contains contemporary news items, photographs, and printed paraphernalia that reflect Ford's public image as well as his own social causes.

Along both sides of the Concourse are groups of objects and artifacts that define the various collections in the museum. Examples of transportation, power machinery, home appliances and furnishings, farming implements and inventions in communications are highlighted by overhead banners, special lighting and even motion. Objects that hold historic associations with noted inventors and leaders — Thomas Edison, the Wright brothers, Charles Lindbergh, George Washington — also are keyed into the new exhibits.

At the end of the corridor, visitors can climb the stairs onto the huge gas-steam engine that once was part of the power system in Henry Ford's Highland Park automotive plant. From that elevation, much of the large hall and the collections areas beyond the Concourse can be seen.

Romulus cager attracts attention

BOB BOBBLES A COUPLE
At last Wednesday's Detroit Sports Broadcasters Luncheon, Bill Lajoie, Detroit Tiger GM, gave an emphatic "No" when asked if Kirk Gibson had requested to be traded.

Talbert, in his Sunday Free Press column, stated that Gibson wanted out of Detroit because of all of the publicity that surrounds his personal life. The previous Sunday Talbert also reported that new Tiger owner Tom Monahan was considering moving his Domino's Pizza headquarters from Ann Arbor to Detroit's riverfront.

Speaking of the Detroit Sports Broadcasters, they have chosen seven athletes to be honored at the 14th annual March of Dimes Sports Awards Dinner, which will take place Monday, January 30 at the Westin Hotel. Honored will be Tico Brown of the Detroit Spirits, the Lions' Doug English, John Ogradnick from the Red Wings, the Pistons' Isiah Thomas, Brian Tinnion of the Express and Lou Whitaker, star of the Tigers and Magnum P.I.

SHADES OF THE JOHN LONG YEARS
Not since the days of John Long has there been such excitement over a Romulus High School basketball team. Led by 6' 8" sophomore Terry Mills, the Eagles are ranked 11th in the state in class A by the Associated Press.

The national attention that Mills is getting is "astounding" according to coach Al Wilkerson. Some of the people interested in Mills are Digger Phelps of Notre Dame, the University of Michigan's Bill Frieder and Louisville's Denny Crum.

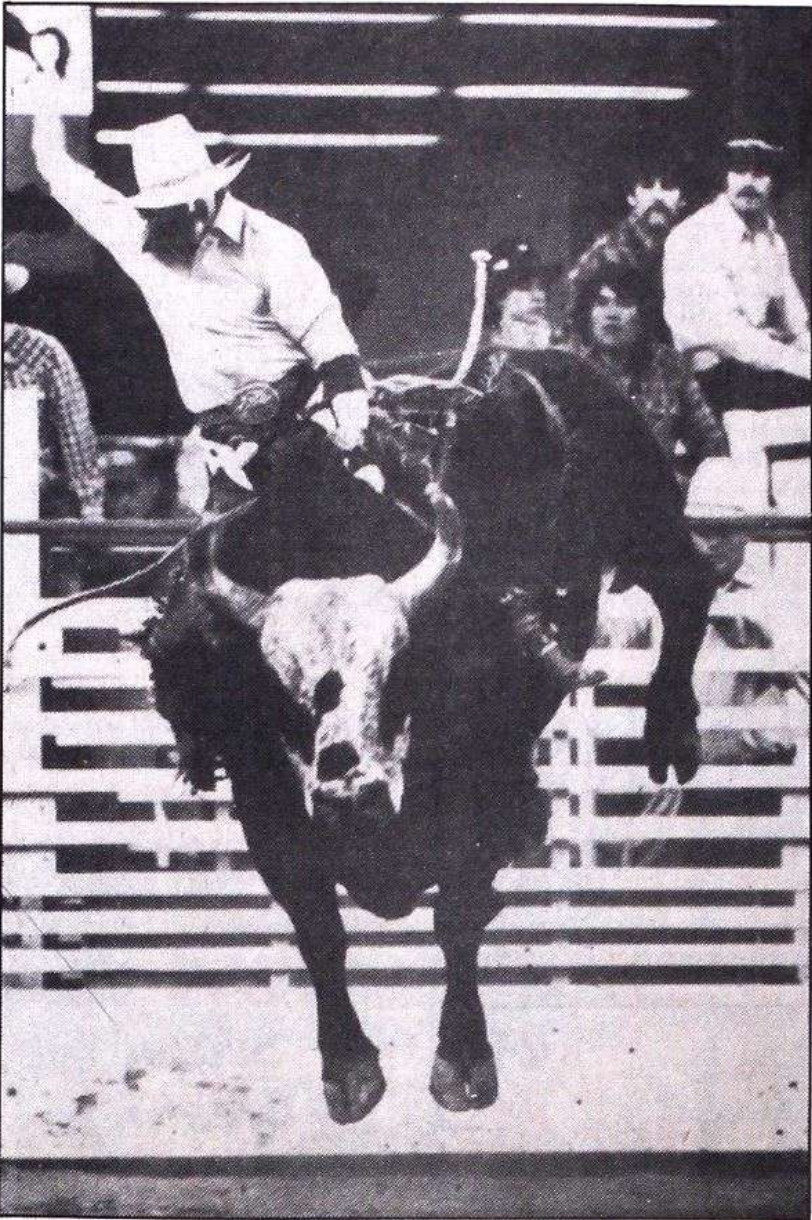

"I've been receiving around 100 inquiries a week from colleges who are interested in Terry," said Wilkerson. Mills, who had been ranked among the top five sophomore high school round ball players in the nation according to several polls, also made the AAU All American team at their tournament, which was held at Notre Dame this past July.

KILL THE UMP!
When the Chicago Black Hawks' Tom Lysiak tripped linesman Ron Foyt and was given an immediate 20-game suspension by the referee, a lot of eyebrows were raised around professional sports, not because of the penalty but due to the fact that a game official could give out that type of penalty on the spot.

How did this slip by "The Eagle" (Allen Eagleson), who heads the association? How could the rules committee pass such legislation? Could it be that game officials have had enough abuse? I'm sure someone argued with the referee back when it was the Lions vs. the Christians, however, the abuse of game officials both verbal and physical have gotten out of hand.

The effects are far reaching, we are seeing it on all levels of sport from the pros right down to the little leagues. This problem has caused great concern for recreation departments especially in adult sports where normal everyday people feel they must turn into animals because they are "competitors". The only way this type of behavior can be stopped is by stopping the role models. That means leaning on "crowd pleasing" individuals like Billy Martin, the king of the dirt kickers and the current earphone throwing champ, Bo Schembechler. Serious injury has already been caused to game officials on the little league and recreational levels, if it occurs at the college level or in the big leagues it will be a serious setback for all sports.

Canton cookbook sales are growing

Canton's Sesquicentennial Cookbook, available for a $4 donation, is both old and new, fun and practical and is selling, its creators are happy to report, like hotcakes.

A love of both the community and cooking led Tillie Schultz, a 38-year Canton resident, to volunteer as chairman of the Sesquicentennial Cookbook Committee this spring.

"The book seemed like a good idea, and a good way to help celebrate our 150th year."

Schultz and committee members Heloise Dunstan, Sharon Johnson, Elaine Lavander, Evelyn Aksamit and Amy Wilkin began collecting recipes in March.

"The project just mushroomed," Schultz said, "because people were so wonderful about submitting recipes to us. Many sent four or five at a time and told us to use them in whatever category we needed to fill."

Unlike most cookbooks, the local publication reads like a who's who of community history.

"People who know the township will enjoy recognizing the names of families, friends and neighbors who have contributed," Schultz said.

The chairman added that, in keeping with the Sesquicentennial spirit, most recipes in the book are tried and true favorites from the kitchens of long-time Canton residents.

A potpourri of household hints, cooking tips, substitution and conversion charts are interspersed through the book, which is illustrated with nostalgic drawings.

The Canton Township Board of Trustees last week publicly praised the cookbook committee for their efforts in compiling the recipes into a professional and appealing package.

"The response to the book has been great," Schultz added. "People who plan on buying a single copy of the cookbook look through it and end up taking seven or eight copies home for gifts."

According to Schultz, more than 500 of the 2,500 cookbook copies printed have sold since Thanksgiving, and many Canton consumers are purchasing copies as gifts for hard-to-buy-for friends and neighbors.

"We only planned one printing, so although we plan to continue sales through next year, the books will only remain available until they sell out," the chairman said.

Proceeds from sales of the books, which are available at the Canton Township Treasurer's Department, Chamber of Commerce office, local banks and churches, will be used to help fund Sesquicentennial events planned for next year.

Those wishing to learn more about, or obtain copies of, the Sesquicentennial Cookbook may call 397-1000 or 495-0509.

Stringing along in harmony

Approximately 150 fifth and sixth grade musicians from the Wayne-Westland School District participated in an informal concert last week at Graham Elementary School. Under the direction of Bart Dunning, an instrumental music teacher, these young string players entertained the audience with a variety of pieces featuring the violin, viola, cello and base. The string quartet from Wayne Memorial High and a string bass duo from John Glenn High joined in the holiday celebration with the performers representing Graham, Edison, Roosevelt, Lincoln, Madison and Schweitzer Schools. Shown here rehearsing for the concert are music students at Edison School in Westland.

Dance lessons set in Inkster

A new series of dance lessons featuring the Swing and the Cha Cha are being offered at the YWCA of Western Wayne County each Sunday evening from 6 to 7 p.m. beginning April 10.

The classes, taught by Shirley Blair, are held at the YWCA Family Center, 26279 Michigan, Inkster, between Beech Daly and John Daly. Both novices and experts are welcome to attend.

Additional lessons in the tango are also offered every Sunday from 7 to 8 p.m. The fee for those classes is $1.25 for one hour and $2.50 for both hours.

The HUB Singles holds a dance each Sunday following the lessons from 8 to 11 p.m. The dance, with live bands and refreshments, is also held at the YWCA Family Center. Admission is $3.25 for guests and everyone is welcome.

seats. Immediately following the game will be a cocktail "afterglow" where fans mingle with team members while enjoying hot and cold hors d'oeuvres.

Tickets are $35 each and must be purchased by mail in advance of the game. Checks payable to "S.E.M.O.A./UNCF" and a card bearing the sender's return address should be sent to:

UNCF FUNDRAISER,
505 North Woodward Avenue,
Suite 1300
Bloomfield Hills, 48013

Orders received before December 23 will be returned by mail. Tickets for orders received after the 23rd will be held at the Pistons' box office and ticket holders will be notified by phone if their tickets are being held.

movies

FRI., DEC. 23

8-10PM NBC (7 Central/Mountain)
THE INVISIBLE WOMAN. News-woman Sandy Martinson (Alexa Hamilton) comes into contact with a strange chemical that makes her invisible, and discovers that it's a help when she tries to write a story about a shady art collector (Harvey Korman). Bob Denver, David Doyle, Garrett Morris and George Gobel co-stars.

SAT., DEC. 24

9-11PM CBS (8 Central/Mountain)
THE CHILDREN NOBODY WANTED. The true-life story of Tom Butterfield, who, as a young man, provided a home for young parentless boys. Fred Lehne and Michelle (Scarface) Pfeiffer with a large cast of "Butter Boys". Simple truths about the real meaning of family and of loving.

9-11PM NBC (8 Central/Mountain)

SATURN III
KIRK DOUGLAS
FARRAH FAWCETT

SATURN 3. Space-age drama about a team of chemists working in a subterranean research station whose lives are threatened by a psychotic killer and "Hector" the rogue robot he has programmed. Kirk Douglas, Harvey Keitel and Farrah Fawcett.

NEIL FUJITA DESIGN

9-11:55PM ABC (8 Central/Mountain)

FUNNY LADY

Barbra Streisand
James Caan
Omar Sharif
Roddy McDowall
Ben Vereen

FUNNY LADY. Barbra Streisand returns as Fanny Brice, worshiped by millions but wronged by the men she loved, played by James Caan and Omar Sharif, who brought both a light to the lady's eye and a hurt to her heart. Roddy McDowall portrays the faithful friend who helps her pick up the pieces after each shattered romance, while Ben Vereen is the fellow performer who keeps her onstage life magical enough to balance the off-stage realities. When Barbra belts a tune, it's magic all the way. A Christmas delight.

MON., DEC. 26

9-11PM NBC (8 Central/Mountain)
HAPPY ENDINGS. Lee Montgomery is a 19-year old college dropout who faces the pressures, problems, joys and fun of raising his two kid sisters and brother following the death of their parents.

WED., DEC. 28

9-11PM CBS (8 Central/Mountain)

JOHN BELUSHI

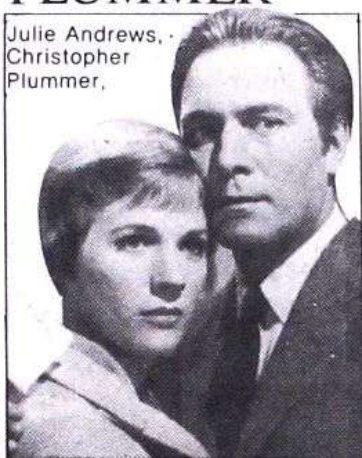

CONTINENTAL DIVIDE. John Belushi as a hard-bitten worldly writer from Chicago who finds love in the wilds of the Rockies with a lady ornithologist, played by Blair Brown. How a columnist and a devoted scientist whose life is in the wilds where bald eagles soar, bill and woo. Fun and serious at the same time. Belushi's best role in his brief, meteoric career.

FRI., DEC. 30

8-11PM NBC (7 Central/Mountain)

SOUND OF MUSIC

JULIE ANDREWS
CHRISTOPHER PLUMMER

Eleanor Parker, Richard Haydn and Peggy Wood in the Oscar-winning (including Best Picture and Best Score) musical about the von Trapp family of Austria prior to WW II. An annual treat for the whole family.

Baird-Herrmann marry

The Community United Methodist Church in Romulus was the setting Nov. 12 for the wedding of Margie R. (Hay) Herrmann of Romulus and Richard A. Baird of Redford. The Rev. Margery Schleicher presided at the double-ring rite before some 130 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hay of Romulus and

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD A. BAIRD

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Baird of Redford are parents of the couple who exchanged vows in a candlelight ceremony at five in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ada Scott was at the organ to accompany Carla Hay Cox of Newport, sister of the bride, who was soloist for the occasion.

Prior to the ceremony, the bride, an accomplished harpist, played a selection of harp arrangements. Mary Lou Lynch, her cousin, played piano accompaniment.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in an off-white satin gown designed with a scoop neckline and full, wrist-length sleeves on an empire bodice. Two rows of Venice lace frosted the front of the skirt which extended into a chapel train.

A small cap of lace and pearls secured her lace-edged veil which drifted to waist length. Silk roses and baby's breath in shades of peach and rust and others in off-white were used to comprise her bridal bouquet.

As her sister's honor attendant, Pearl (Hay) Varner of Belleville donned a peach satin floor-length gown styled with a lace bodice and accordion-pleated skirt. Her small headpiece was made of silk flowers in fall shades and her hand bouquet of rust and peach roses and fall blooms.

Nancy Hunsaker of Dearborn Heights, a niece of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid in an identical ensemble.

Donald Geoff Herrmann of Romulus, son of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Frederick Morris Hay of Romulus, brother of the bride; Dennis Yanachik of Novi and Marc Ray Herrmann of Romulus, son of the bride, who was junior usher.

A buffet dinner, served by ladies of the church, followed the ceremony after which the newlyweds departed for an 8-day honeymoon on the islands of Maui, Oahu and Hawaii. They are now residing at 14200 Huron River Dr., Romulus.

A teacher in the Romulus Community Schools, the new Mrs. Baird holds bachelor and master's degrees from Eastern Michigan University. Her husband, who is self-employed at Baird Fence Company of Redford, is a graduate of RETS Electronic School of Detroit and also has an associate degree from Henry Ford Community College.

Marble loaf cake

At any time of the year, but especially during the holidays, a cake is a delightful, pleasing dessert to serve. And, for a special occasion, serve the delicious marble loaf cake. The marble loaf cake is similar to that of a pound cake in that it has a firmer texture.

Marble Loaf Cake

1 6 oz. pkg. (1 cup) Nestle's Semi-Sweet Chocolate Morsels
1 1/4 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter, softened
1 1/4 cups sugar
2 eggs

2 teaspoons vanilla extract
3/4 cup milk

Preheat oven to 350°F. Melt over hot (not boiling) water, Nestle's Semi-Sweet Chocolate Morsels; set aside. In small bowl, combine flour, baking powder and salt; set aside. In large bowl, combine butter and sugar; beat until creamy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Blend in vanilla extract. Alternately, blend in flour mixture with milk. Divide batter in half. Blend melted chocolate into one half of batter. Drop heaping tablespoonfuls of light and dark batter into greased and floured 9" x 5" x 3" loaf pan. Run knife through batter to marbleize. Bake at 350°F. Time: 1 hour 30 minutes. Cool at room temperature 10 minutes and remove from pan. Makes 1 loaf cake.

Gratowskis are wed 50 years

Family, friends honor them in Florida

In celebration of their golden wedding anniversary, Ray and Rose Gratowski of Port Orange, Fla., formerly of Belleville, renewed their marriage vows Nov. 26 and later were honored at a reception hosted by their children, Tom and Patricia Gannon of Ponce Inlet, Fla.; Marge and Jim Chumbley of Longwood, Fla. and Janice and Brian Fry of Belleville, at the Daytona Hilton. The 65 guests attending included friends and relatives from New York, Arizona and Florida with the Michigan contingent being comprised of the Frys, Ruth Roulo, Mildred Artley and Doreen Binder.

The Gratowskis, who moved to Florida in 1961, have eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Both natives of the Belleville area, they formerly owned and operated Ray's Market on Sumpter Road.

MR. AND MRS. RAY GRATOWSKI

Study Club sees Africa slides

Twenty members of the GFWC Belleville Woman's Study Club met Dec. 14 in the parlor of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville.

A new member, Mrs. JoAnn Wiles, was welcomed into the club.

After a short business meeting, the president of the GFWC Junior Woman's Study Club, Nancy Sawyer, spoke on the changes about to take place with that group.

Mrs. Arlene Smith, program chairman, then introduced her son, Paul Smith, who presented a slide program on Botswana, Africa where he taught in an elementary school as a representative of the Methodist Church Board of Missions during July and August, 1983.

As a prelude to the presentation, he and his mother sang a duet, "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go, Dear Lord." They were accompanied by Mrs. Elna Pettus on the piano. Paul Smith is a 12-year veteran of the Van Buren Schools elementary system.

The GFWC Woman's Study Club will recess during the months of January and February with the next meeting to be held at 8 p.m. March 14, at the Methodist Church.

potpourri

By Lee Smith
Suburban Living Editor

As I tied the red velvet ribbon to the lid of my white ironstone soup tureen and tucked in a sprig of greenery, I remembered from whence the pretty serving piece, complete with ladle and matching tray had come and I realized how much I missed the place — "Mrs. L's" — a unique little shop once located in the heart of Romulus.

Many of you will share a twinge of nostalgia as I write of her lovely store which, unfortunately for us, was several years ahead of its time. Hers was the place you found the unusual, the beautiful, the often one-of-a-kind gift that had recipients asking, "Where did you find this?"

I miss an almost weekly Friday stop at her gift shop and, at this season particularly. As for after-Christmas sales, hers was the first spot I headed. I've missed finding very special bargains in her holiday boutique (an extra room she transformed into a tinsel and glitter fairyland each season) and I feel the loss each time I set out my holly-trimmed mailbox table piece, the gold basket holding pine branches and a gilt angel and all the other ornaments and conversation pieces which add to the holiday "dress" at our house.

I MISS THE soda counter at what used to be Kirk's Drug Store — the place you could pop into for a quick cup of coffee or one of its wonderful hot fudge sundaes — and always find someone you knew to talk with.

I MISS THE old Cozadd place on Liberty Street and the stateliness of its architecture — turrets having always held a fascination for me. It seemed to reign supreme along the lakeside street and its demise by fire was a great loss of beauty for the city of Belleville.

I FEEL THE loss of the old Belvil Theater for all young people especially — what a fun spot it used to be for meeting your friends. I miss it for anyone who'd enjoy having a local movie house to drop into thereby cutting out the many miles one has to drive to see a film. I especially feel its loss whenever we "go to the show" in Plymouth and find that old-hometown-togetherness rekindled; the patrons all seem to know each other.

BOX OFFICE SUPPLY left a void, too. It was always so handy to run into for a typewriter ribbon or a few legal pads or odd-sized envelopes. And the gift and card department kept you shopping "at home" and not off at some mall.

SPUDNUTS! DOES anyone else remember Spudnuts? They've gone the route of so many things once delicious and unusual. Perhaps, for those who were quite addicted to them, it's a good thing. Discovered while a college freshman, the Ann Arbor-based bakery which originated the raised donut made from potatoes later opened a branch in Ypsilanti. It's hard to believe the Spudnut didn't continue into posterity; we certainly added to its cash receipts!

HOW OFTEN we've missed the marvelous chicken 'n dumpling dinners at Barbu's — a small dining room once (a long time ago) in operation on Michigan Avenue. Our first-born was just highchair age when we used to head for Barbu's after Sunday mass. A real C & D buff, BG says there's just been no other quite like Barbu's.

MOST OF ALL at this special season I miss the yearly trips to downtown Hudson's, three little girls in tow — each in her Sunday finery — for a visit with you-know-who. Because of the excitement that day generated, we never told them 'til that morning that we were going or they'd not have slept, eaten or given us a moment's peace.

Lunch, complete with little crayon-coloring book packs, and of course, clown sundaes, always followed in the 13th floor dining room — a place of quiet refinement that always made a person feel elegant for some reason.

I truly miss that annual JLH outing since I always took for granted that someday I'd be taking my grandchildren down the same route their mothers traveled just a few short years ago. I really thought I'd be doing re-runs with a certain little boy about now; all I can say is, "Sorry, Matt."

THE BOTTOM LINE — Sincere best wishes to all who take the time to read "potpourri" each week and particularly to those who tuck in a moment to comment (pro or con) by letter or phone or even, nicer, in person, on what's been written. May the joys of Christmas be yours throughout the coming year and may we all experience the blessing of good health, the love of family and friends and, above all, peace on earth.

HOLIDAY GREETINGS

Newcomers on the scene

The boys certainly have it over the girls this week — seven to two, in fact — and all but three are “firsts” for their moms and dads. And — since they’re the lone twosome in a male-dominated column, we’re letting the “ladies” go first — giving them top billing in the spirit of Christmas, shall we say?

SARAH MARIE MULAR

A touch of pink has been added to the home of Tom and Kathy Mular of 41525 Tyler Road, Belleville — and it comes in the form of a baby girl, Sarah Marie. Making her debut at 1:28 a.m. Nov. 28, the baby weighed 8 lbs.-11 ozs. and measured 20 inches on arrival at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne. The new sister of Steven Thomas, who’s five, and Jeffrey Alan, who’s four, she’s also the granddaughter of Pat and Lou Char of Westland and Millie and Ed Mular of Wayne. Her proud great-grandparents are Lou and Celia Char of Detroit and Mary Russow of New Boston. Her mom is the former Kathy Char of Westland.

SARAH EILEEN SPRING

Our correspondent, Mrs. Joseph Spring who pens “In the community,” also contributed to the list of newcomers this week — her newest great-grandchildren having been born in time for announcement in this issue.

Named Sarah Eileen, the little miss is the second child of Debbie and Roger Spring of Salem, Ore. Putting in her appearance at 7:56 a.m. on Dec. 12, she was welcomed home by her 2½-year-old brother, Jonathan.

She is the granddaughter of John and Mildred Spring and Harold and Mary Stovall, all of North Bend, Ore., and the fifth great-grandchild for Belleville’s Mrs. Spring.

TREVOR ROBERT VYE

“Trevor Robert” is the title chosen for the first child born Nov. 11 to Sandy and Greg Vye of Evergreen, Colo. The new heir, who bowed in at St. Luke’s Hospital in Denver, weighed 6 lbs.-10 ozs. and measured 19½ inches. His very proud grandparents (the new grandma claiming he’s the cutest, smartest, most adorable baby ever!) are Belleville City Councilman Bob Tontalo and his wife, Betty, and Florence Vye of Tucson, Ariz. Trevor’s mom is the former Sandy Tontalo.

CHRISTOPHER TIMOTHY DILKS

The birth of their first child, a son, is announced by David and Sally Dilks of Ann Arbor. The newcomer, an early Christmas gift for his parents, arrived at 3:06 p.m. Dec. 12 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. The 8 lb.-5 oz. infant, who measured 21½ inches, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dilks of New Boston and Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Port Huron.

The new mother is the former Sally Wilson.

DALLAS CARL ROBERT DUBKE

It was a boy Nov. 23 for The Rev. and Mrs. Dallas Dubke of Red Bluff, Calif. Their future heir put in his appearance at 4:44 a.m. (one day after his mother’s birthday) at Sutter Memorial Hospital in Sacramento where his weight was recorded at 3 lbs.-7 ozs. and his length at 17 inches.

Titled “Dallas Carl Robert,” the infant is the couple’s first child and the grandson of Prof. and Mrs. Robert Huebner of Mexico City, Mexico and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dubke of New Boston.

The new mother is the former Martha Huebner.

NICHOLAS BERGMOOSER

Alice and Richard Bergmooser of Romulus proudly announce the arrival of a new grandson, Nicholas Bergmooser, on Dec. 7. The baby, who weighed in at 7 lbs.-4 ozs. and measured 21 inches, is the first child of Capt. Larry Bergmooser and his wife, Danielle, who are stationed in Germany.

Nicholas’ other grandparents, Alex and Suzanne Pon, live in Oakland, Calif.

CHAD EDWARD RANDALL

Tracy and Erik Randall have a new baby brother they’ve been telling people about since his arrival Dec. 4. The newest addition to the family, Chad Edward, was delivered at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor where he weighed in at 7 lbs.-12 ozs.

The son of Kathy and Brank Randall, who reside at 47049 Ayres, Belleville, Chad is the new grandson of Marjorie and Edward Krystyniak of Belleville and Brank and Irma Randall of Mio. Great-grandparent honors to Paul DuBois of New Bern, N.C. Mrs. Randall is the former Kathy Krystyniak.

CASEY LANE PREUNINGER

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor was the delivery spot Dec. 10 for the baby boy who was welcomed by Carrietta and Scott Preunger of Grass Lake Road, Manchester.

The couple’s first child who was labeled “Casey Lane,” he arrived at 12:57 a.m., tipped the scales at 9 lbs.-1 oz. and measured 21½ inches.

The son of the former Carrietta Pierman, he is the new grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knopp of Havre, Mont. and Mrs. S.C. (Helen) Pierman of Belleville.

Two great-grandmothers, who reside in Montana, are Mrs. Madge Stevenson of Havre and Mrs. Rosalie Preuninger of Lewiston.

STEPHAN LYNN REFFITT

It was a boy, too, for Gary and Michelle Reffitt of 1817 Hamlet, Ypsilanti, who on Dec. 14 added the sounds of a baby to their home. Bowing in at 2:12 a.m. at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, his statistics were listed at 6 lbs.-5 ozs. and 20 inches.

A “first” for the Reffitts, Stephan Lynn is also Number One on the list of grandchildren for William and Patsy Pyshnik and Number Three for Luther and Fannie Reffitt, all of Belleville.

COLLINS-LA PENSEE

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Collins of 43119 Riggs Road, Belleville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Claudia Suzanne, to Rick La Pensee, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred La Pensee of 45295 Ecorse Road, Belleville. The bride-elect is employed in the order department of Continental Food Brokerage of Livonia. Her fiancé, who serves as a volunteer fire fighter for Van Buren Township Station No. 2, is employed as a fireman at Hydra-Matic Division of General Motors in Ypsilanti. A May wedding is being planned.

By MRS. JOSEPH SPRING
699-4021

Mrs. Ruth Roulo returned recently after having spent two weeks visiting relatives and friends in Florida. On arriving at Port Orange, she attended the golden wedding celebration of former Belleville residents, Rose and Ray Gratoski, held Nov. 26 at Daytona Beach.

She also visited long-time Dearborn friends at Jensen Beach and spent several days with relatives, Dorothy and Clarence Roulo at Fort Pierce; the latter city having been her home before coming to Belleville. She had many friends with whom she renewed acquaintance, among them Irene and William Leach.

Another Florida visitor, Mrs. Ted (Eva) Luper, recently returned after 21 days spent with a brother and his wife, Don and Mabel Logan at New Port Richey. She enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner with a nephew and wife, Don and Connie Haslinger at Clearwater. She also spent some time with her sister, Aleta Halsinger at Holiday and a few days with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown at Ellenton. Mrs. Brown will be remembered here as the former school nurse, Marjorie Lingenfelter.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stevens and Suzanne were recent dinner guests of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Ruth Shoup at Lake Lee Ann. The occasion was in celebration of Mrs. Stevens’ birthday which was Dec. 10. Others present were Mrs. Chester Shoup, Mr. and Mrs. Knoblauch, and Mrs. Mark Knoblauch and daughter, Heidi, all from Morenci.

Sylvia Thornburg and small son Benjamin of Kalamazoo have been spending a few days this past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carey.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson were among the former members of the “Ever Ready” Sunday School class who attended the annual dinner and Christmas party at Marble Memorial United Methodist in Milan last week.

Natalie Gress, a student at Central Michigan University, arrived recently to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. La Marr Gress.

Mrs. Blanche Atyeo and Mrs. Ada Sager were co-hostesses at a noon luncheon for a group of long-time friends at the latter’s home last Saturday afternoon.

After having been a surgical patient at Beyer Memorial Hospital for the past week, Richard Carey is now convalescing at his home on Lakeview Drive.

WOTM notes

The Belleville Women of the Moose wishes to congratulate Junior Graduate Regent Debbie Wilsey on earning her green cap. Guests honoring Debbie were from members, 11 visiting chapters and 11 junior graduate regents who put on the ritual. Dignitaries present were Joyce

Becker, past member of the International College Regent Board; Betty Wright, Past Deputy Grand Regent from Ypsilanti; Erville Haskell, member of the Grand Council, Chatham Ont. and Mary Ann Price, Past Deputy Grand Regent from Ypsilanti. Three new candidates were enrolled: Irene Dworak, Ethel Keyat and Amy Buttgeic.

Following the meeting, dinner was served to all guests and members.

Michigan Bell rep speaks at BPW Club

The spirit of Christmas was evident in many ways at the December dinner meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women’s Club (BPW). Candle arrangements were on each table with small gold angel place favors at each guests seat. Santa napkins and colorful mint cups gave added atmosphere for the evening.

Following dinner, enjoyed by 44 members and guests, the program speaker, Charlene Mitchell, gave an informative message on the divestiture of the Bell System and AT & T. An employee of Michigan Bell, she told of some of the changes phone customers, may expect come Jan. 1, 1984.

Club member, Vira McGrane, gave a short talk on the BPW Foundation, an educational and career opportunity arm of the National Federation. In recent years, more than $300,000 in scholarships have been given to 1,000 mature women to finance training for a more promising career. Dues and contributions of BPW members support the Foundation to make possible scholarships, research and educational programs.

Another member, Helen White, explained the BPW emblem by use of the flannel board. This was informative for the new members and a renewal of memory for the members of long standing.

The humanitarian committee, co-chaired by Marilyn Montgomery and Virginia Melcher, announced the annual gifts made to local enterprises. To the Health Center of Romulus, a donation of $100 was made to serve senior citizens and youth of the local area. A contribution of $50 was given to the September Days senior group to apply on the cost of a new van. A gift of $50 was given to the local Head Start Program, housed at Quirk Elementary School, and administered by social worker, Eleanor Kostecki.

'I've been back to school day'

Classroom remains center of learning

Leonard Armstrong visits Mrs. Lilyan Carlson's room at Quirk School. Armstrong is a teacher and owner of a miniature golf course. Pictured are Robin Fulk, Amy Daniels, Armstrong, Brandon Thompson.

Jason Cunliffe has help from Dr. Tom Troxel, a dentist.

There's a saying that one never really can return home. But that adage apparently doesn't apply to the classroom as a score of prominent Van Buren residents learned. They responded to the schools' call to return to the classroom.

The program, sponsored by the Van Buren Education Association, was labeled: "I've been back to School Day" and was in observance of American Education Week.

Community leaders were invited to spend a day in school to see first hand what is happening these days in Belleville schools. The response from the community this year was excellent, according to Leon Birdyshaw, chairperson for the project.

"This year we were able to give people more time than last year to clear a day. We almost doubled our community participation," said Birdyshaw.

Fifteen community leaders found time from their busy schedules to visit the schools. They were Cleve Luebke (Belleville High School), Dr. Tom Troxel (Edgemont), Doris Quirk to be "a fun day". "Mrs. Carlson and her students were very friendly. The faculty members I met were also very congenial and hard workers", he commented at the end of the day.

"I enjoyed computers and clerical studies very much", said Cleve Luebke after her experience at Belleville High School. "These classes are going to be very helpful for the children in their futures", she added.

Cynthia Coleman, Van Buren Education Association President, was enthusiastic about this year's program. "It is gratifying to see so many more visitors."

Perhaps Connie Brinkerhoff, Board of Education member, feelings best when she observed, "It's inspiring to watch kids learn."

Marilyn Montgomery, Van Buren Township trustee, visits Sam Bishar's room at North Junior High. Pictured with Mrs. Montgomery is Daphne Porterfield.

Romulus seeks Midland cage crown

Who sez academic grades don't decide athletic contests? They do. Just ask Romulus Coach Al Wilkerson and his Eagles who were whipped by the Willow Run Flyers Friday night 72-51. Not in the Romulus line-up for that key game were 6-7 Grant Long, one of the Eagles' leading scorers and rebounders, and Bryon Lewis, another top-notch all-around performer.

Both Long and Lewis had to sit this one out because of grades. They were ineligible.

Long and Lewis are expected in Wilkerson's line-up on Dec. 27 when the local cagers take part in the Midland Holiday Tournament. Romulus drew Saginaw in the first round (7 p.m.), while the host will take on Mt. Pleasant at 8:30 p.m.

The championship will be decided Dec. 28 with the winners of the first round meeting at 8:30 p.m.

Wilkerson said that Willow Run is "an excellent team and nothing should be taken away from their victory."

"But we had too many distractions during the week to be competitive and losing two players also were costly. If this had to happen (losing the cagers to ineligibility), I would have preferred it happening now instead of later in the season."

The Flyers, behind the sharp-shooting of Andre and Bryon Bond (they are twins) raced to a 17-8 first period lead and never looked behind. They had a comfortable 34-20 edge at intermission, then raced to a 17-8 first period lead and never looked behind. They also had an adequate 34-20 edge at intermission, then the Eagles outgunned their rivals 15-10 and 23-21 in the final stanzas.

Terry Mills, who had a sensational 30-point effort in turning back Cabrini earlier in the week, wound up with 15 points, the Eagles' high. Teammates Terry Roache and Ned Hargress checked in with 10 points each.

Andre Bond finished the evening with 23 points and his brother, Bryon, chipped in 16.

Cabrini learned early that it was no match for the Eagles who sped to a 33-29 lead at the halfway mark thanks to Mills' 30 points and went on to post their second consecutive victory 68-59. Mills, who also had 14 rebounds and eight assists, earned "Player of the Week" honors by a metropolitan newspaper for his outstanding performance.

Hargress accounted for 14 points.

Long and Lewis also had to sit this one out because of grades.

Romulus launched the 1983-84 campaign with an impressive victory over Ann Arbor Pioneer.

Down 8-0 early the first period, Mills, Long and Steve Glenn rallied the Eagles to a 77-55 victory.

Five Romulus players reached double figures with Mills' 18 standing up as high for the team. Glenn finished with 14, while Roache tossed in 12 and Shawn Perkins and Long each had 11.

Belleville blasts Rams, 81-65 to even cage record at 2-2

Leon Birdyshaw has a tough act to follow. The former assistant coach moved up to the head coaching job when veteran basketball coach Tom Niemi resigned at Belleville High.

Niemi won the last of the Suburban 8 titles. The league had actually dwindled to four teams last year.

Birdyshaw and his Tigers are now in a newly-aligned Wolverine "A" Conference which features the likes of Monroe, Fordson, Wayne and Trenton to contend with.

After splitting his first four games — beating Taylor Center, 81-65 and knocking off Richmond 63-50, but losing to Northville 50-47 at the South Lyon Christmas Tournament and to Monroe 65-48 in their league debut, Birdyshaw believes that his team "hasn't played a good game yet."

"I believe we will have a sound team," he is quick to point out, "but we have a lot of things to work on and iron out."

Belleville roared past the Taylor Center Rams, going up 30-10 in the first period. The outcome of the match was never in doubt after the first quarter.

Bob Griffin, a guard, who pumped in 10 of his game and season high 30 points in the opening stanza, paced the Tigers while the rampaging Tigers got six points from 6-0 guard Keith Vawters. Wayne Burney also chipped in six.

Belleville held a 47-24 edge at intermission, however, the Rams managed to come back in the third period to outscore their hosts 23-14 to close within 11 points before the Tigers turned on their scoring power again.

Griffin sank 13 from the field and picked up 4 of 7 free throws for his 30 points. Vawters and Chris Grantham — and this must be the last of the Granthams (the family has produced some outstanding cagers at Belleville high in the past) added 11 each.

Burney also was on target for 20 points.

The Tigers have the rest of the year off and will resume competition on Jan. 3 when they clash with arch-rival, Romulus.

Eagles are 3rd best at Trenton mat tourney

This just may be Coach Wayne Schimming's year.

The Romulus wrestling coach, who has had to struggle without a junior high program, saw his grapplers place third in a field of 22 competing teams at the tough

Trenton Wrestling Tournament.

"I am very proud of our wrestlers," Schimming said. "They have worked hard and are working hard. They were at their best in order to place third at Trenton."

Romulus managed to finish near the top despite the fact that four starters had been sidelined because of a wide range of reasons.

Monroe captured top honors at Trenton with a total of 183½ points while city rival, Monroe Jefferson, was runner-up, with 169. Romulus ended up third (154½) while the only other area teams competing, New Boston Huron, was eighth with 104½ points.

Romulus received an outstanding performance from 145-pounder, Rex. Boatright, who finished second to Ann Arbor Pioneer's Fred Bernardin. The Pioneer wrestlers were awarded a close 2-0 decision in the championship round.

In the meanwhile, Tracy Cline gave the Eagles a third place in the heavyweight as he pinned Monroe's Randy Fieler. Chuckie Wilson, a 119-pounder, placed fourth with a pin over New Boston Huron's Les Harris and Bill Garland, representing the Eagles in the 115-pound class, stopped Todd Gillman of Flat Rock.

Schimming also received a fourth-place effort from Bob Webb.

Romulus travels to Temperance Bedford on Thursday where the wrestlers will meet some of the finest grapplers in the state. Bedford is the defending Class A state champ. They will take a 6-1 dual meet record into that invitational.

Volleyballer earns praise

Former Wayne High volleyball star, Dhurat Ali, is in the news at Michigan State.

Ali, a 5-9 junior, played in very volleyball match for the Spartans in 1983, helping to improve the front line. According to the Spartan coaching staff, Ali "is one of our strongest defensive players."

MSU finished the 1983 campaign with a 17-17 over-all record.

Getting only mild opposition on this shot, Romulus' Ned Hargress (44) flips in this basket that helped Coach Al Wilkerson's Eagles put down a highly-touted Cabrini club last week, 68-59. However, the Eagles' bubble burst Friday night as Willow Run bombed Romulus 72-51.

Undefeated in Northwest

Glenn rallies past physical RU

If anyone had seen the Westland John Glenn-Redford Union basketball contest Friday evening, one would have thought the Northwest Suburban League football season had never ended.

Playing a very physical game, the Rockets of Westland John Glenn defeated a very scrappy Panthers' squad, 72-53, to post their fourth win in five tries this season. It was also the Rockets' second straight league victory, tying them at 2-0 for first place with Garden City and Thurston.

For RU the loss was their 25th straight over the course of two years. But the Panthers have been in every game this season including a near-upset of highly-regarded Livonia Stevenson, and they certainly made believers of Rocket Coach Gordie Davis and his Rockets.

Dennis Bushart, a 5-10 sophomore guard from RU, led the Panthers' surge in the first quarter with five points and helped his teammates keep after the Rockets. They only trailed, 15-13, at the end of the period and upset was on their minds.

The Rockets, meanwhile, kept themselves in the lead with senior guard Jeff Hawley (6-0, 145) popping in eight points, including a shot at the first quarter buzzer that gave the Rockets the lead.

If the fans thought the first quarter was wild, the second period got even wilder. It didn't start out that way as Glenn spurred to a 12-4 uprising to take a 27-17 lead with 4:55 to go in the second period. Led by 6-6 senior center Marius Grazulis' six points and five points from Todd Stein, the Rockets seemingly had the Panthers on the run.

But these Panthers, under the direction of Coach Lee Bjerke, came back and made the Rockets sweat out the remaining minutes of the second quarter. Bushart hit for seven points and 6-1 guard Pat Lowney scored five more as the Panthers outscored the Rockets, 18-8, to close the gap to 36-35 at halftime.

Craig Thornton's free throws for the Rockets shortly before halftime allowed the Rockets to enter the lockerroom with the slim one-point margin over the Panthers.

Davis discussed the situation and got the momentum back in their favor.

The Rockets switched to a zone defense, taking away the Panthers' inside game and forcing them to shoot over Grazulis.

Stein and Taig. The three Glenn forwards then grabbed rebounds by the dozen and opened up their running game.

Senior Dave Long, who has played well during the early going this season, hit for six points and received help from Taig (4) and Grazulis (4) as the Rockets ran up a 20-8 third quarter spurt and led at the end of the period, 56-43.

Redford Union attempted to close the gap in the fourth quarter but could get no closer than eight points. Bushart scored five points for RU but they were not enough as Davis emptied his bench and the Rockets increased their lead to the final 19-point margin. Thornton added three more points to his game total of seven, while Bob Nakev and Keith Reed added a basket apiece.

Grazulis led the Rockets in scoring with 13 while Bushart had 17 for the Panthers.

Earlier in the week the Rockets had suffered a heart-breaking loss at the hands of always-tough Dearborn Fordson, 51-50. Mustafa Hamid's (6-3, 185, Sr.) shot with four seconds left in the game proved to be the decisive basket.

The Rockets had fallen behind by as many as 12 points early in the game but had fought back to take a three-point lead late in the fourth quarter.

Jeff Hawley led the Rockets on the evening with 15 points and Dave Long hit for a career-high 10 points, most of them on long-range jumpers.

McSween in hockey tourney

Don McSween of Plymouth is one of 29 local players competing in the 19th Annual Great Lakes Invitational College Hockey Tournament Dec. 29 and 30 at Joe Louis Arena.

McSween, a Michigan State University icer, is one of two blue-chip defensemen brought in by Spartan coach Ron Mason. Don is regarded by many as one of the top defensemen to come out of the Detroit Great Lakes Junior A League, where he played for the Redford Royals. A graduate of Catholic Central High School, Don was an eighth-round draft choice of the Buffalo Sabres in the 1983 N.H.L. draft.

Michigan State University battles Northern Michigan University in the opening game of the Great Lakes Invitational on Thursday, Dec. 29 at 5 p.m. Immediately following, University of Michigan faces off against Michigan Tech. In the second night's action, the losers play a consolation game beginning at 4:30 p.m., followed by the championship match.

Tickets for each night's doubleheader are priced at $8.50, $7.50 and $6.50 and are available at the Joe Louis Arena Box Office, all Ticket World Outlets and the student ticket offices of the participating universities.

For general information or group discounts, call (313) 567-6000. To charge tickets by phone with MasterCard or Visa, call (313) 567-9800.

HURON TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. 84-1

AN ORDINANCE TO ADOPT AMENDMENTS TO THE UNIFORM TRAFFIC CODE FOR CITIES, TOWNSHIPS AND VILLAGES ORDINANCE HERETOFORE ADOPTED BY THE TOWNSHIP OF HURON ON OR ABOUT THE 19TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1969 THROUGH HURON TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE NO. 69-1 AS AMENDED BY AMENDMENT OF SECTIONS 5.15, 5.15(a), 5.15(b), 5.15(c), 5.15(d) AND THE ADDITION THERETO OF NEW SECTIONS 5.15(e), 5.15(f), 5.15(g) AND 5.15(h) SAID AMENDMENT TO REGULATE THE OPERATION OF MOTOR VEHICLES BY PERSONS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF INTOXICATING LIQUOR AND/OR CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES, OR WHILE THEIR ABILITY TO OPERATE A MOTOR VEHICLE IS IMPAIRED, TO PROVIDE FOR CHEMICAL ANALYSIS OF PRESENCE OF ALCOHOL AND/OR CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES AND TO PROVIDE FOR PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION OF THESE SECTIONS; AND TO REPEAL ALL ORDINANCES OR PARTS OF ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT THEREWITH.

THE TOWNSHIP OF HURON THEREWITH:

PART I AMENDMENTS AND ADDITIONS TO CODE ADOPTED

Sections 5.15, 5.15(a), 5.15(b), 5.15(c) and 5.15(d) of the Uniform Traffic Code for Cities, Townships and Villages previously adopted and made effective by Huron Township on or about the 19th day of February, 1969 through Huron Township Ordinance No. 69-1 as amended is hereby amended to read as follows and new sections 5.15(d), 5.15(f), 5.15(g) and 5.15(h) are added as set forth further hereinafter:

Section 5.15 — Driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance.

1. A person, whether licensed or not, who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, shall not operate a vehicle upon a highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of vehicles, within the Township. A peace officer may, without a warrant, arrest a person when the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person was, at the time of an accident, the driver of a vehicle involved in the accident and was operating the vehicle upon a public highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of vehicles, in the Township while in violation of this subsection or of subsection (2).

2. A person, whether licensed or not, whose blood contains 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol, shall not operate a vehicle upon a highway or other place open to the general public including an area designated for the parking of vehicles, within the Township.

3. The owner of a vehicle or a person in charge or in control of a vehicle shall not authorize or knowingly permit the vehicle to be operated upon a highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of motor vehicles, within the Township by a person who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person who is convicted of a violation of subsection (1), (2), or (3) is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00, or both, together with costs of the prosecution. As part of the sentence for a violation of subsection (1) or (2), the court shall order the Secretary of State to suspend the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person for a period of not less than six (6) months nor more than two (2) years. The court may order the Secretary of State to issue to the person a restricted license permitting the person during all or specified portion of the period of suspension to drive only to and from the person's residence and work location; in the course of the person's employment or occupation; to and from an alcohol or drug education program or treatment program as ordered by the court; to and from the person's residence and an educational institution at which the person is enrolled as a student; or pursuant to a combination of these restrictions. The court shall not order the Secretary of State to issue a restricted chauffeur's license, which would permit a person to operate a truck or truck tractor, including a trailer, which hauls hazardous material. The court shall not order the Secretary of State to issue a restricted license unless the person states under oath and the court finds that the person is unable to take public transportation to and from his or her work location, place of alcohol or drug education or treatment, or educational institution, and does not have any family members or others able to provide transportation. The court order and license shall indicate the person's work location and the approved route or routes and permitted times of travel. For purposes of this subsection "work location" includes, as applicable, either or both of the following:

- The specific place or places of employment.
- The territory or territories regularly visited by the person in pursuance of the person's occupation.

5. A person who violates subsection (1) or (2), or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection (1) or (2) within seven (7) years of a prior conviction may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days or a fine of not more than $500.00, or both. As part of this sentence, the court shall order the Secretary of State to revoke the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person. For purposes of this section "prior conviction" means a conviction under subsection (1) or (2), or a law of another state substantially corresponding to subsection (1) or (2).

6. As part of the sentence for a violation of subsection (1) or (2), the court may order the person to perform service to the community, as designated by the court, without compensation, for a period not to exceed twelve (12) days. The person shall reimburse the appropriate local unit of government for the cost of insurance incurred by the local unit of government as a result of the person's activities under this subsection.

7. Before imposing sentence for a violation of subsection (1) or (2), the court shall order the person to undergo screening and assessment by a person or agency designated by the office of substance abuse services, to determine whether the person is likely to benefit from rehabilitative services, including alcohol or drug education and alcohol or drug treatment programs. As part of the sentence, the court may order the person to participate in and successfully complete one (1) or more appropriate rehabilitative programs. The person shall pay for the costs of the screening, assessment, and rehabilitative services.

8. Before accepting a plea of guilty under this section, the court shall advise the accused of the statutory consequences possible as the result of a plea of guilty in respect to suspension or revocation of an operator's or chauffeur's license, the penalty imposed for violation of this section, and the limitation on the right of appeal.

9. The operator's or chauffeur's license of a person found guilty of violating subsection (1) or (2), shall be surrendered to the court in which the person was convicted, and the court shall immediately forward the surrendered license and an abstract of conviction to the Secretary of State. The abstract of conviction shall indicate the sentence imposed. Upon receipt of, and pursuant to the abstract of conviction, the Secretary of State shall suspend or revoke the person's license and, if ordered by the court and the person is otherwise eligible for a license, issue to the person a restricted license stating the limited driving privileges indicated on the abstract. If the license is not forwarded to the Secretary of State, an explanation of the reason why the license is absent shall be attached. If the conviction is appealed to circuit court, that court may, ex parte, order the Secretary of State to rescind the suspension, revocation, or restricted license issued pursuant to this section.

Section 5.15(a) - Criminal prosecutions for driving under influence of intoxicating liquor; tests; admissibility; presumptions; liability for withdrawing blood; refusal to take test; other evidence; jury instruction.

1. The amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the driver's blood at the time alleged as shown by chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine or breath shall be admissible into evidence in a criminal prosecution for any of the following

- A violation of section 5.15 (1), (2) or (3), or 5.15b.
- Felony driving, negligent homicide, or manslaughter resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle while the driver is alleged to have been impaired by or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, or to have had a blood alcohol content of 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol.

2. If a test is given, the results of the test shall be made available to the person charged or the person's attorney upon written request to the prosecution, with a copy of the request filed with the court. The prosecution shall furnish the report at least (2) days before the day of the trial and the results shall be offered as evidence by the prosecution in a criminal proceeding. Failure to fully comply with the request shall bar the admission of the results into evidence by the prosecution.

Except in a prosecution relating solely to a violation of section 5.15(2), the amount of alcohol in the driver's blood at the time alleged as shown by chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine or breath shall give rise to the following presumptions:

- If there was at the time 0.07% or less by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor.
- If there was at the time in excess of 0.07% but less than 0.10% by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant's ability to operate a vehicle was impaired within the provisions of section 5.15(b) due to the consumption of intoxicating liquor.

c. If there was at the time 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

4. A sample or specimen of urine or breath shall be taken and collected in a reasonable manner. Only a licensed physician, or a licensed nurse or medical technician under the direction of a licensed physician and qualified to withdraw blood acting in a medical environment, at the request of a peace officer, may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the person's blood, as provided in this ordinance. Liability for a crime or civil damages predicated on the act of withdrawing blood and related procedures shall not attach to a qualified person who withdraws blood or assents in the withdrawal in accordance with this ordinance unless the withdrawal is performed in a negligent manner.

5. The tests shall be administered at the request of a peace officer, having reasonable grounds to believe the person has committed a crime described in subsection (1). A person who takes a chemical test administered at the request of a peace officer, as provided in this section, shall be given a reasonable opportunity to have a person of his or her own choosing administer one (1) of the chemical tests described in this section within a reasonable time after his or her detention, and the results of the test shall be admissible and shall be considered with other competent evidence in determining the innocence or guilt of the defendant. If the person charged is administered a chemical test by a person of his or her own choosing, the person charged shall be responsible for obtaining a chemical analysis of the test sample. The person charged shall be informed that he or she has the right to demand that a person of his or her choosing administer one (1) of the tests provided for in subsection (1), that the results of the test shall be admissible and shall be considered with other competent evidence in determining the innocence or guilt of the defendant, and that the person charged shall be responsible for obtaining a chemical analysis of the test sample.

6. The person charged shall be advised that if the person refuses the request of a peace officer to take a test described in this section, a test shall not be given without a court order. The person charged shall also be advised that the person's refusal of the request of a peace officer to take a test described in this section shall result in the suspension of his or her operator's or chauffeur's license or operating privilege, and in the addition of six (6) points to his or her driver record.

7. This section shall not be construed as limiting the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question of whether or not the person was impaired by or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination of intoxicating and a controlled substance, or whether the person had a blood alcohol content of 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol.

8. If a jury instruction regarding a defendant's refusal to submit to a chemical test under this section is requested by the prosecution or the defendant, the jury instruction shall be given as follows:

"Evidence was admitted in this case, which if believed by the jury, could prove that the defendant had exercised his or her right to refuse a chemical test. You are instructed that such a refusal is within the statutory rights of the defendant and is not evidence of his guilt. You are not to consider such a refusal in determining the guilt or innocence of the defendant."

9. If, after an accident, the driver of a vehicle involved in the accident is transported to a medical facility and a sample of the driver's blood is withdrawn at the time for the purpose of medical treatment, the results of a chemical analysis of that sample shall be admissible in a criminal prosecution for a crime described in subsection (1) to show the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the person's blood at the time alleged, regardless of whether the person had been offered or had refused a chemical test. The medical facility or person performing the chemical analysis shall disclose the results of the analysis to a prosecuting attorney who requests the results for use in a criminal prosecution as provided in this subsection. A medical facility or person disclosing information in compliance with this subsection will not be civilly or criminally liable for making the disclosure.

10. If after a highway accident the driver of a vehicle involved in the accident is deceased, a sample of the decedent's blood shall be withdrawn in a manner directed by the medical examiner for the purpose of determining blood alcohol content or presence of a controlled substance or both.

Section 5.15(b) - Impaired driving; violation as misdemeanor.

1. A person shall not operate a vehicle upon a highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated off the parking of vehicles, within the Township when, due the consumption of an intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance, or a combination of an intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, the person has visibly impaired his or her ability to operate the vehicle. If a person is charged with violating section 5.15(1) or (2), a finding of guilty is permissible under this section.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person convicted of a violation of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or a fine of not more than $300.00, or both, together with costs of the prosecution. As part of the sentence, the court shall order the Secretary of State to suspend the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person for a period of not less than ninety (90) days nor more than one (1) year. The court may order the Secretary of State to issue to the person a restricted license permitting the person during all or a specified portion of the period of suspension to drive only to and from the person's residence and work location; in the course of the person's employment or occupation; to and from an alcohol or drug education program or treatment program as ordered by the court; to and from the person's residence and an educational institution at which the person is enrolled as a student; or pursuant to a combination of these restrictions. The court shall not order the Secretary of State to issue a restricted chauffeur's license which would permit a person to operate a truck or truck tractor, including a trailer, which hauls hazardous material. The court shall not order the Secretary of State to issue a restricted license unless the person states under oath and the court finds that the person is unable to take public transportation to and from his or her work location, place of alcohol or drug education or treatment, or educational institution, and does not have any family members or others able to provide transportation. The court order and license shall indicate the person's work location and the approved route or routes and permitted times of travel. For purposes of this his subsection, "work location" includes, as applicable, either or both of the following:

- The specific place or places of employment.
- The territory or territories regularly visited by the person in pursuance of the person's occupation.

3. A person who violates this section or local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section within seven (7) years of a prior conviction may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, a fine of not more than $500.00, or both. As part of the sentence, the court shall order the Secretary of State to suspend the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person for a period of not less than six (6) months nor more than eighteen (18) months. The court may order the Secretary of State to issue to the person a restricted license as provided in subsection (2), except that a restricted license shall not be issued during the first sixty (60) days of the suspension period. For purposes of this section, "prior conviction" means a conviction under this section, section 5.15(1) or (2), a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section or section 5.15(1) or (2), or a law of another state substantially corresponding to this section or section 5.15(1) or (2).

4. A person who violates this section, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section, within ten (10) years of two (2) or more prior convictions, as defined in subsection (3), may be sentenced as provided in subsection (3), except that as part of the sentence the court shall order the Secretary of State to revoke the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person.

5. As part of the sentence for a violation of this section the court may order the person perform service to the community, as designated by the court, without compensation, for a period not to exceed twelve (12) days. The person shall reimburse the appropriate local unit of government for the cost of insurance incurred by the local unit of government as a result of the person's activities under this subsection.

6. Before imposing sentence for a violation of this section, the court shall order the person to undergo screening and assessment by a person or agency designated by the office of substance abuse services to determine whether the person is likely to benefit from rehabilitative services, including alcohol or drug education and alcohol or drug treatment programs. As part of the sentence, the court may order the person to participate in and successfully complete one (1) or more appropriate rehabilitative programs. The person shall pay for the costs of the screening, assessment and rehabilitative services.

7. Before accepting a plea of guilty under this section, the court shall advise the accused of the statutory consequences possible as the result of a plea of guilty in respect to suspension or revocation of an operator's or chauffeur's license, the penalty imposed for violation of this section and the limitation on the right of appeal.

8. The operator's or chauffeur's license of a person found guilty of violating this section shall be surrendered to the court in which the person was convicted. The court shall immediately forward the surrendered license and an abstract of conviction to the Secretary of State. The abstract of conviction shall indicate the sentence imposed. Upon receipt of an pursuant to the abstract of conviction, the Secretary of State shall suspend or revoke the person's license and, if ordered by the court and the person is otherwise eligible for a license, issue to the person a restricted license stating the limited driving privileges indicated on the abstract. If the license is not forwarded to the Secretary of State, an explanation of the reason why the license is absent shall be attached. If the conviction is appealed to circuit court, that court may, ex parte, order the Secretary of State to rescind the suspension, revocation or restricted license issued pursuant to this section.

Section 5.15(c) - Implied consent.

1. A person who operates a vehicle upon a public highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of vehicles, in the state is considered to have given consent to chemical tests of his or her blood, breath or urine for the purpose of determining the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in his or her blood if:

- The person is arrested for a violation of section 5.15(1) or (2) or 5.15(b).
- The person is arrested for felonious driving, negligent homicide, or manslaughter resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle, and the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person operating the vehicle while impaired by or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, or while having a blood alcohol content of 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol.

2. A person who is afflicted with hemophilia, diabetes or a condition requiring the use of an anticoagulant under the direction of a physician shall not be considered to have given consent to the withdrawal of blood.

3. The tests shall be administered as provided in section 5.15(a).

Section 5.15(d) - Refusal of chemical test.

If a person refuses the request of a peace officer to submit to a chemical test offered pursuant to section 5.15(a), a test shall not be given without a court order. A written report shall be forwarded top the Secretary of State by the peace officer. The report shall state that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15(c) (1), and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the peace officer and had been advised of the consequences of the refusal. The form of the report shall be prescribed and furnished by the Secretary of State.

Section 5.15(e) - Notice of receipt of sworn statement.

1. Upon receipt of the report made pursuant to section 5.15(d), the Secretary of State shall immediately notify the person in writing, mailed to his or her last known address, that the report has been received and that within fourteen (14) days of the date of the notice the person may request a hearing as provided in section 5.15(f).

2. The notice shall specifically state that the failure to request a hearing within fourteen (14) days will result in the suspension of the person's license or permit to drive. The notice shall also state that there is not a requirement that the person retain counsel for the hearing, though counsel would be permitted to represent the person at the hearing.

Section 5.15(f) - Hearing; failure to request; suspension, revocation, or denial of license, permit or operating privileges.

1. If the person who refuses to submit to a chemical test pursuant to section 5.15(d) does not request a hearing within fourteen (14) days of the date of notice pursuant to section 5.15(e), the Secretary of State shall suspend the person's operator's or chauffeur's license or permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege, for a period of six (6) months, or for a second or subsequent refusal within a period of seven (7) years, for one (1) year. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a vehicle in the state, the Secretary of State will deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six (6) months, or, for a second or subsequent refusal within a period of seven (7) years, for one (1) year.

2. If a hearing is requested, the Secretary of State shall hold the hearing in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided in section 322 of the act. At least ten (10) days' notice of the hearing shall be mailed to the person requesting the hearing, to the peace officer who filed the report under section 5.15(d), and, if the prosecuting attorney requests receipt of the notice, to the prosecuting attorney of the county where the arrest was made. The hearing officer shall be authorized to administer oaths, issue subpoenas for the attendance of necessary witnesses, and may grant a reasonable request for an adjournment. The hearing shall cover only the following issues:

- Whether the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15(c) (1).
- Whether the person was placed under arrest for a crime described in section 5.15 (c) (1).
- Whether the person reasonably refused to submit to the test upon the request of the officer.
- Whether the person was advised of the rights under section 5.15(a) and 5.15(c).

3. The hearing officer shall make a record of the proceedings held pursuant to subsection (2). The record shall be prepared and transcribed in accordance with section 86 of the administrative procedures act of 1969, Act No. 306 of the Public Acts of 1969, being section 24.286 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Upon notification of the filing of a petition for judicial review pursuant to section 323, the hearing officer shall transmit to the court in which the petition was filed, not less than ten (10) days before the matter is set for review, the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceedings. Proceedings at which evidence was presented need not be transcribed and transmitted if the sole reason for review is to determine whether or not the court will order the issuance of a restricted license. The parties to the proceedings for judicial review may stipulate that the record be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to a shortened record may be taxed by the court in which the petition is filed for the additional costs. The court may permit subsequent corrections to the record.

4. After the hearing, the Secretary of State may suspend or deny issuance of a license or driving permit of a nonresident operating privilege of the person involved for a period of six (6) months, or, for a second or subsequent refusal within seven (7) years, for one (1) year. If the person involved is a resident without a license or permit to operate a vehicle in the state the Secretary of State may deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six (6) months, or, for a second or subsequent refusal within seven (7) years, for one (1) year. The person involved may file a petition in the circuit court of the county in which the arrest was made to review the suspension or denial as provided in section 323.

5. When it has been finally determined that a nonresident's privilege to operate a vehicle in the state has been suspended or denied, the Department shall give notice in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administration of the state of the person's residence and of each state in which he or she has a license to operate a motor vehicle.

Section 5.15(g) - In chemical tests, uniform rules of administration.

The department of state police may promulgate uniform rules for the administration of chemical tests for the purposes of this ordinance.

Section 5.15(h) - Preliminary breath analysis.

1. A peace officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a person was operating a vehicle upon a public highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of vehicles, in the state, and that the person by the consumption of intoxicating liquor may have affected his or her ability to operate a vehicle, may require the person to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis.

2. A peace officer may arrest a person based in a whole or in part upon the results of a preliminary chemical breath analysis.

3. The results of a preliminary chemical breath analysis shall be admissible in a crime prosecution for a crime enumerated in section 5.15a(1) or in an administrative hearing under section 5.15(f), solely to assist the court or hearing officer in determining a challenge to the validity of an arrest. This subsection does not limit the introduction of other competent evidence offered to establish the validity of an arrest.

4. A person who submits to a preliminary chemical breath analysis shall remain subject to the requirements of sections 5.15(a), 5.15(c), 5.15(d), 5.15(e) and 5.15(f) for the purposes of chemical tests described in those sections.

5. A person who refuses to submit to a preliminary chemical breath analysis upon a lawful request by a peace officer is responsible for a civil infraction.

6. Section 5.15(g) shall apply to a preliminary chemical breath analysis.

PART II SAVINGS CLAUSE

All proceedings pending and all rights and liabilities existing, acquired or incurred at the time this amendatory ordinance takes effect are saved and may be consummated according to the law in force when they are commenced. This amendatory ordinance shall not be construed to affect any prosecution pending or initiated before the effective date of this amendatory ordinance, or initiated after the effective date of this amendatory ordinance for an offense committed before the effective date.

PART III NOTICE TO BE PUBLISHED

The Township Clerk shall publish this ordinance in the manner required by law and shall at the same time publish a supplementary notice setting forth the purpose of the Uniform Traffic Code and of the fact that complete copies of the Code as hereby amended are available at the office of the Clerk for inspection by and distribution to the public at all times.

PART IV EFFECTIVE DATE

This Ordinance shall take effect on the 20th day of January, 1984 which is 30 days after publication thereof. All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

MADE, PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE TOWNSHIP OF HURON THIS 14TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1983.

Romulus adults turn to medical careers for future jobs

One of the most popular classes in the Romulus Adult Education program is Introduction to Medical Careers. It provides the student the opportunity to explore the many exciting careers that today's expanding medical field offers.

Introduction to Medical Careers familiarizes students with the basic medical terminology used in the health field and can be of assistance when just trying to understand one's own doctor.

Physiology and anatomy of the heart are included to provide a foundation for learning such job related skills as, taking temperatures, pulse, blood pressure, basic patient care and the operation of the EKG machine and its use with patients.

Health careers such as X-ray technician, Respiratory Therapy, Nursing and occupational Therapy are just a few of the careers that are explored.

Important questions are answered such as, what career is suited to me? What school do I go to? How do I apply? What previous education do I need? How much will it cost? How much money can I expect to earn?

People will always require the assistance of the medical field and this will insure the expansion of and importance of people skilled to meet the need.

Do you know what an Occupational Therapist is, or does? Are you looking for a job and have considered the medical field but are unsure of where to start? Both these questions can be answered through education.

The Romulus Community Education program can help. High School completion classes are available as well as GED preparation classes.

The Adult Basic Education Program offers help to people with low reading and math skills. Registration for next semester begins Jan. 16. For more information about our program and registration times and locations, phone 941-0610.

2 ex-Huron gridders key to SVSC's best season

Saginaw Valley State College has finished its finest football season ever and two New Boston Huron High School graduates have been a big part of the Cardinals' winning ways.

SVSC's national championship hopes were halted in the semi-finals of the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association (NAIA) playoffs with a 41-7 loss to powerful Carson-Newman College (TN) last Saturday.

The Cardinals won their first playoff game ever in the quarter-finals with a 14-13 upset win over defending national champion Central State University (OK). The win was the ninth of the season for SVSC, the most in the school's history. The Cards finished with a 9-3 overall mark.

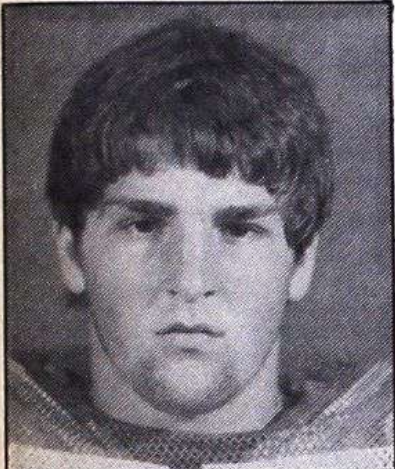

Junior Joe Rice (New Boston) and sophomore Shawn Slayton (New Boston) were instrumental in helping Saginaw Valley win the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference with a perfect 6-0 record.

Rice, a 6-4, 235-pound defensive tackle recorded 30 solos and 51 assists. He also had 14 tackles behind the line of scrimmage which included a team high 8.5 sacks.

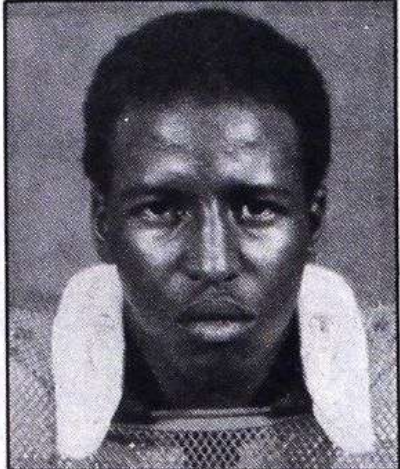

Slayton, a 6-0, 170-pound defensive back etched his name into the record books. He set a new standard when he intercepted three passes against Franklin College. He also broke the season record of six, with his seventh theft, but teammate Steve Henderson finished with eight to pass Slayton in the record books.

SVSC suffered through a 1-9 campaign last year.

A whole new way to snow plow

Tim Ray at General Cycle

Leading off this week is the 1969 Shelby GT500 Mustang of Rick Bracken from Belleville. This grabber blue beauty has been recently painted, including doing the engine compartment in iron black. The 428 Cobra Jet motor is balanced and blueprinted with a high volume oil pump, chrome moly oil drive, dual roller timing set, LeMans rods, heads ported and polished and topped off with a police interceptor aluminum intake manifold. Power is transmitted by a four-speed close ratio transmission.

Rick sits in an all-white interior, and the whole package only has 37,000 miles on it so the interior is just like new! Rick, it's a great looking ride, I hope you bring it to our spring car show. One thing I forgot to ask... what do you tow with that trailer hitch?

Writing about a Ford from Belleville naturally brings to mind Atchinson Ford — Kurt Atchinson and all the fine people there. In 1969 my dad had made up his mind to buy a new Lincoln until Dutch Atchinson, Kurt's dad, talked him into driving a new LTD... which he promptly bought, saving a few pesos in the deal. Well, Kurt, that LTD finally passed away last year, but only after being violated by another car. How's that for longevity???

It's a long way from Studebaker, Packard, Mercedes-Benz, et al, but the name Husak is still alive and well in the Detroit area. I recently met Dave Husak who runs Husak Auto Sales and Leasing in Garden City. Mickey Husak, Dave's brother, is at Crestwood Dodge. The Husak name goes back a lot of years in this area — particularly down at Detroit Dragway in the early 60s. They had some really fast cars!

Rick Bracken and his 428 Cobra

Dave advises that, anymore, he's content to rent or lease cars rather than race them. SEE?... Maturity catches us all!!! Dave is located at 27777 Ford Road. You may want to remember that address as it will be the only place around to do one-stop comparative shopping. That's right. Shortly after the first of the year, Dave will display different models of Ford, GM, Chrysler and AMC cars for you to compare and make your choice. Indoors, no less!

I don't know if Husak can get this one for lease — the English Leather Turbo T — but you can sure check it out at the Detroit Autorama at Cobo Hall Jan. 6 through 8, along with the Knight Rider K.I.T.T. car. More than 500 custom street rods, trucks, buggies and drag boats will be on display — as well as Morganna, the kissing bandit.

In addition, Cyclorama, the 1984 motorcycle manufacturers' display will be on the Cobo lower level.

Tim Ray at General Cycle in Lincoln Park has discovered a way for you to make money and have fun! But you better move quick! As you can see by the attached photo, Tim attaches a snowblade and chains to his wheel world

Suzuki 125 all All Terrain Vehicle and plows snow from his parking lot. An enterprising dude could pay for his year-round fun on this Suzy by doing sidewalks in subdivisions. The only reason you'd have to stop is to collect money! Tim assures me that we can do a ride review on this truly "have-fun, make money" Suzuki ATV.

Last minute gifts for car and bike nuts: helmets, electric gloves and helmet inercoms from General Cylec, World of Ruttians. Or how about cocoa mats, driving lights or compasses from K-Mart—or cruise control from A.B.B.A. Accessories, Autorama tickets, face shields, leathers and insulated boots from Honda City, gift certificates from Harlow Tire for wheels or tires, or perhaps subscription to Associated Newspapers to enjoy Wheel World—clever, huh?

The long and short of Christmas greetings are portrayed here by Joy Mavis and Jeff Young at Livonia Volkswagen and Mazda—you can figure out who's who. They were both trying hard to get me to believe that Santa drives a bright red Scirocco! Both Joy and Jeff can give you suggestions on accessories for your VW or Mazda enthusiast for Christmas. Merry Christmas from Livonia Volkswagen and Mazda from both of them.

Well, what else can be said than can convey our sincere Christmas greetings to you and yours that hasn't already been said? The very best to you and yours...and to mine!...Yes, to Marcy, to Debby, to Heather...thanks for your support and encouragement and the fact that you guys are always there.

Hope for more in '84! Merry Christmas...drive carefully.

The long and the short of it . . .

Beware of carbon monoxide poisoning

Carbon Monoxide (CO) poisoning poses a real and dangerous threat during the winter season, when most drivers keep their car windows tightly closed, warns the American Medical Association. Since carbon monoxide is odorless, colorless and tasteless, it is seldom detected until its deadly work is apparent. In a car, a leaky or crushed muffler or exhaust line can be the source of lethal fumes entering the passenger compartment. A good practice is to always leave at least one car window open slightly. Also, have exhaust systems checked periodically.

Maintenance, good driving double car life

Americans often give up their automobiles after only 60,000 or 70,000 miles. That's low mileage to auto expert Ross Olney, who says a car properly maintained and driven with care can be made to last 120,000 miles and more.

Olney, who has written more than 50 books on car repair, shares his tips for extending the life of a car in the December Reader's Digest.

Olney recommends changing the engine oil and oil filter frequently. Some owners of high mileage cars do this as often as every 2,000 miles, using premium oil for long engine and valve life. A chassis lubrication with every oil change will substantially extend the life of ball joints, springs, linkages and other critical parts, he adds.

Engine coolant, transmission fluid, power-steering-oil, battery water and brake fluid levels should be checked regularly—usually when filling up with gasoline at the service station. Most of these checks, Olney writes, can be done by a service station attendant.

Olney's maintenance program also includes replacement of fan belts if they're frayed, worn or cracked; changing the air filter according to the owner's manual schedule; draining and flushing the cooling system yearly; and regular tune-ups.

Besides maintenance and repairs, the other key to extending a car's life is to develop good driving habits. Olney says it's not necessary to warm up modern engines. Instead, start the car, give it a few seconds to be sure all the fluids are circulating, then drive away slowly and carefully. Never race a cold engine. Also, it's best when having difficulty starting a car not to grind the starter more than 10 seconds, and to allow a few seconds between 10-second bursts.

To help forestall the cost of a brake system overhaul, don't ride the brake pedal, he writes. Avoid hard stops by anticipating a stop well in advance. And when stopping, brake, release, then brake again gently to minimize heat in the brake system.

Olney also advises care when using the clutch in a manual transmission. Don't ride the clutch pedal when the car is moving, and also shift into neutral when stopped for more than a few seconds.

Caldwell credits success to 'people'

The turnaround in the U.S. auto industry has been achieved through commitment in improved quality and better management of human resources, Ford Motor Company Chairman Philip Caldwell said recently.

"There is substantial evidence that a positive change is now taking place throughout the U.S. automobile industry," Caldwell pointed out in an address at Brigham Young University where he received the International Executive of the Year Award. It is presented annually by the University School of Management "to an outstanding executive who has demonstrated exceptional leadership and high moral and ethical standards."

"With three quarters of the year behind us," Caldwell noted, "most security analysts expect that the earnings of Ford, GM and Chrysler will exceed $6 billion this year. This represents a $10 billion turnaround from 1980, when the losses for these same three companies totaled $4 billion."

"In my judgment," Caldwell explained, "the primary cause of the turnaround has been the unwavering commitment on the part of the U.S. auto industry to manufacture better quality products and to manufacture them more efficiently. At Ford, much of our improvement is a direct result of the new directions we have taken in better managing our human resources."

"Our goal is not modest. It is to realize the individual potential of each person in the company, to enhance our competitive strength and continuously to improve our quality, productivity and technology."

Caldwell described Ford's Employee Involvement program which encourages employees to play an important role in shaping the future of the company through voluntary participation in day-to-day decisions about their jobs, the work they do and the products they make.

"The strength of employee involvement," he said, "is that it allows individuals to discover themselves—and to put their own potential to work in more creative ways."

Caldwell noted that the precursor of modern economics was the 18th Century Scottish philosopher Adam Smith who first pointed out that the wealth of a nation depends largely upon the effective and intelligent labor of human beings.

"It is we who can rediscover the source of the 'wealth of nations,'" Caldwell said, "if only we will remember this old and tried fact of our existence."

"Adam Smith predicted that free enterprise would provide the means to unleash the abundant energies of people—to employ their talents in ways which would improve their own lives, and as a result, would also enrich and strengthen the nation's economy."

Caldwell emphasized that "efforts to enhance the human potential of our corporate citizens is of particular importance now—not just for what it does at Ford and in our own industrial communities—but because it also is precisely in step with the spirit and needs of the country."

He referred to a recent report from the Business-Higher Education Forum and other studies that have focused special attention on the human element in achieving an industrial renaissance. "The country's future educational, training and retraining requirements are currently receiving broad attention," he said.

"This interest has come not a moment too soon. For our nation, on its present course, is headed for intellectual bankruptcy."

To illustrate his point, Caldwell called attention to the following facts:

- Today, one of every five adults, or 20 percent of the workforce is functionally illiterate.

- Job market needs are changing rapidly in response to technology advances, necessitating additional education, training and retraining for both employed and unemployed American workers.

- In this highly technical age, the nation currently produces only 60,000 new engineers a year—40 percent fewer than what is needed.

- There is a shortage of well-trained faculty in critical areas.
